Day after, fugitive Lalit Jha nabbed

UAPA invoked against intruders, accomplices; 4 placed under police remand; 8 security personnel suspended

UJWAL JALALI @ New Delhi

A day after intruders made a mockery of Parliament's security cover, fugitive Lalit Jha, said to be the mastermind of the whole drama, was arrested. He surrendered before Kartavya Path Police Station in New Delhi, sources said. He has been handed over to Special Cell of the Delhi Police that is investigating the matter.

Earlier in the day, a case was registered against the two intruders and their accomplices under the stringent Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act. Offences punishable under UAPA are non-bailable. A local court placed them under seven-day police remand.

Heads also began to roll as eight personnel attached with Parliament security were suspended for dereliction of duty. The eight belong to difference security agencies and were on Central deputation.

One of the two intruders, Manoranjan D, is said to have done a recce of the old Parliament building during its budget session. He found that footwear wasn't being checked during screening of visitors, hence the ploy to smuggle smoke canisters in shoes. Special shoes were made in Lucknow to sneak in the canisters.

"So far, all the four accused claimed they were self-motivated and they planned and executed the operation on their own," a police officer said.

In the court, the prosecution accused the four of indulging in an act of terrorism and said they tried to incite fear. "It was a well planned attack on Parliament," police said. "They need to be taken to Mumbai, Mysore and Lucknow for probe," the court was told.

The fifth suspect, Vikram alias Vicky Sharma — and his wife Rakhi — were let off for now after questioning.

Jha was outside Parliament on Wednesday and was holding the mobile phones of the two intruders — Manoranjan from Mysuru and Sagar Sharma from Lucknow — as also Neelam from Haryana's Hisar and Amol Shinde of Maharashtra's Latur, who staged a simultaneous protest outside Parliament.

"Jha appears to have received directions on Wednesday from another person to flee," said sources privy to the probe.

A West Bengal angle came up after Jha apparently sent a video of the protest outside Parliament to college student Nilaksha Aich, a resident of Halisahar in North 24 Parganas. Aich later posted it on his Instagram account. Jha's Instagram account, too, shows that the same footage.

"I was in college. After classes, I checked my WhatsApp messages and found it was sent by Jha whom I met in April this year at an NGO event. I saw him playing an active role at the event and we shared contact numbers," said Aich.

A Special Cell team of the Delhi Police is in Bengal after they learnt that Jha lived and studied in Kolkata and rented at room in Central Kolkata where he used to run coaching classes for children.

Mistaken identity

Hours after suspending DMK's Member of Parliament S R Parthiban, Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla revoked the suspension after the government clarified that it was a case of mistaken identity as the member was not present in the House when others disrupted the proceedings

A day after the security breach in Parliament, as many as 13 MPs were suspended from the Lok Sabha and one from the Rajya Sabha for the remainder of the Winter Session for 'unruly conduct' and allegedly disrupting proceedings.

As the Opposition upped the ante on suspensions, the government faced some awkward moments after DMK's S R Parthiban's name was wrongly included in the original suspension list of 14 MPs from the Lok Sabha. Later, his suspension was revoked after DMK members pointed out he was not present in the House.

Slamming the government, Congress leader Jairam Ramesh questioned why no action was taken against Pratap Simha, the BJP MP who issued passes to the intruders.

"What happened yesterday in the Lok Sabha was deeply worrying. What happened today in the Lok Sabha is totally bizarre," Ramesh said.

Of the suspended MPs from LS, nine are from the Congress (T N Prathapan, Hibi Eden, Jothamani, Ramya Haridas, Dean Kuriakose, V K Sreekandan, Benny Behanan, Mohammad Jawed, and Manickam Tagore); two are from CPM (P R Natarajan and S Venkatesan); one from CPI (K Subbarayan); and one DMK — Kanimozhi. TMC's Derek O'Brien was suspended from the Rajya Sabha.

5-month-old female foetus found in waste bin, B'luru hosp sealed

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

AFTER police busted the Mandya-Mysuru-Bengaluru female foeticide racket, intensified inspection unfolded another incident wherein a five-month-old female foetus was found in a waste bin of a private hospital at Hoskote on Wednesday.

Officials of the Health Department sealed the SPG Hospital. The police took a few employees, including three nurses, into custody. The main accused, a doctor, is absconding and efforts are being made to nab him. A lab technician has also been booked. The police are checking hospital records to ascertain the number of illegal abortions that have been performed and are going through CCTV footage.

Vivek Dorai, Deputy Director, PCPNDT (Pre-conception and Pre-natal Diagnostics Techniques Act), said the officials found an unregistered portable ultrasound machine on the hospital premises during a routine inspection on December 5. Once the matter was brought to the notice of higher officials, another inspection was conducted on Wednesday. "When we visited the hospital, nurses and other employees there did not give proper replies to our questions. Suspecting their behaviour, we decided to inspect the hospital premises. We found the foetus in the waste bin at an operation theatre. We immediately sealed the hospital and alerted the police," Dorai said.

Further investigation by the officials revealed that the hospital maintained no records for the number of ultrasound performed. It also had no prenatal records of patients. Health Commissioner D Randeep said, "This is the first case booked for female foeticide through illegal abortion in Karnataka with evidence registered ultrasound machine and foetus in the waste bin." Prior to this, factors such as no proper registration of scanning centres, maintenance of ultrasound records, foetuses found abandoned or unregistered ultrasound machines hinted at such illegal activities in the State, he added.

The accused have been booked under the Prohibition of Sex Selection Act 1994, the Medical Termination of Pregnancy Act 1971, voluntarily causing a woman with child to miscarry (IPC 312), intent to cause miscarriage of a woman with a child and results in the death of that woman (IPC 314) and other Sections.

HC allows survey of Mathura Shahi Idgah

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

IN a major move in Mathura's Krishna Janmabhoomi-Shahi Idgah dispute, the Allahabad High Court on Thursday allowed the setting up of a court-monitored panel to survey the mosque.

"So far as the modalities and composition of the commission is concerned, this court feels it proper to hear the counsel for the parties for such purposes on the next date fixed i.e. December 18," said Justice Mayank Kumar Jain in response to an application filed on behalf of deity Bhagwan Shri Krishna Virajman and seven other Hindu plaintiffs.

The court said the survey could be supervised by a three-member commission of advocates, adding that the commission's report will not affect the merits of the case. It said the sanctity of the religious place must be strictly maintained during the survey and that no harm or injury should be caused to the structure in any manner.

"The commission is duty-bound to submit its fair and impartial report on the basis of the actual status of the property. The commission may also submit its discovery as to the existence of particular signs at the property as referred by the plaintiffs," the court said.

The single-bench also rejected the plea of the UP Sunni Central Waqf Board that its application challenging the maintainability of suit for survey must be heard first. The court said there is no provision to give priority to one application over the other.

Kurla Exp skips B'luru, pax in lurch

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

OVER 700 passengers proceeding to Bengaluru on board Lokmanya Tilak Kurla Express from Mumbai had a nightmare travel experience on Monday (December 9).

They had no clue that their train would bypass Bengaluru on its way to Coimbatore by taking a different route. Many senior citizens ended up spending up to Rs 8,000 on cabs from Guntakal Junction in Andhra Pradesh to Bengaluru.

The Bengaluru Railway Division announced a partial cancellation of the train on December 1. The Guntakal Division too had put out an advisory. However, the ticket confirmation messages sent to the passengers confirmed their journey up to SBC Bengaluru City.

"I got this message at 6.43pm on December 8 stating that train No 11013 does not touch your station SBC on 8.12.2023. My train is supposed to reach KSR Bengaluru only on December 9. So, I assumed this was for the train that left the previous day which would reach Bengaluru on December 8 and did not pay much attention to it. Unfortunately, as it turned out the next day, it was for our train and the date in the message was wrong," DH Suresh, a senior citizen, who travelled with his family told TNIE. P5

B'gavi incident: An extraordinary case, will be handled extraordinarily, says HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

OBSERVING that the Belagavi incident, where a woman was stripped, beaten up and tied to an electric pole, is more heinous than the plight of Draupadi whose saree was pulled by Dushyashana in the Mahabharata, the High Court of Karnataka on Thursday said that it is not satisfied with the action taken by the State.

The court also orally observed that the incident reflects deep-rooted male chauvinism and only because they (the accused) are male, they behaved brutally with the woman and being male does not give them a licence to behave inhumanly. The court noted that it is an extraordinary incident and it will be handled extraordinarily.

A division bench of Chief Justice Prasanna B Varale and Justice Krishna S Dixit made these scathing remarks after going through the status report submitted by Advocate General (AG) Shashikiran Shetty.

"The status report is falling too short to refer to certain areas at this stage. Least we can say that we are not satisfied by the way things took place post the incident at this stage. Least we can say that we are not satisfied by the way things took place post the incident," the court said while hearing a suo motu petition.

The report stated that the house of the victim belonging to a downtrodden community was attacked by the accused from the same community around 1 am on December 11. After ransacking her house, they attacked her with logs before stripping and parading her naked. They all kicked her and tied her to an electric pole and thrashed her till 3 am. Eight accused are yet to be arrested.

To this, the court said what would other women feel? If sensible women read this, they will start hating this country. It is much more heinous than the plight of Draupadi. Fortunately, Lord Krishna helped her. But unfortunately, no one came to help this victim from the Dushyashanas and Duryodhanas. The boy and girl might have made a mistake. Why should the mother be punished? Is it her fault to give birth to her son?, the court questioned.

The court also wondered whether the State Women's Rights Commission exists here? The State Human Rights Commission and the Women's Rights Commission must have taken action immediately.

The court directed the AG to submit an additional status report on December 18 and ordered the Belagavi Police Commissioner and the ACP, who is the investigating officer, to appear before it on the said date.

Channapatna toys now a part of academic activities in Afghanistan

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @ Bengaluru

TOYS made in Channapatna near here have now become part of children's academic activities in Afghanistan.

The Ministry of External Affairs sent some toys to Afghanistan some time ago as a friendly gesture. This traditional craft of Karnataka has received the Geographical Indication (GI) tag.

The famed wooden toys are made by artisans in and around Channapatna town of Ramanagara district, which is around 60 km from Bengaluru. There are over 250 cottage units and around 50 factories that make toys in Channapatna.

According to a post shared by the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC), Afghanistan, hundreds of children in that country have been affected by drug abuse.

"We are striving to get them support, and through the Ministry of External Affairs, Government of India, toys donated by the Karnataka State Rural Livelihood Mission have reached many children in Afghanistan," it stated.

Mission director Sreevidya PI told The New Indian Express that over 500 toys made of ivory and wood were sent to children in Afghanistan some time ago. The educational and entertainment toys for children aged up to 12 were specially made by local women's self-help groups.

"These toys are from people of India to children of Afghanistan," she said. The MEA had placed orders for the toys.

Sreevidya said the Channapatna toys are ideal for children as chemical dye is not used in them and they come without sharp edges.

They are totally safe. Considering these factors, the toys were chosen and sent to Afghanistan, she added.

Sreevidya said Rs 4.98 crore has been released for the toys cluster at Channapatna. It is a joint venture by the State and Union governments.

"We are helping local artisans through online, offline and other platforms of marketing. The toys made here are of good quality and can be shipped to other countries," Sreevidya said.

Declining groundwater level; borewell census to be held in 2024

Previous census held in 2019, Karnataka registered 14 lakh authorised borewells

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

AS part of the all India borewell census undertaken by the Central Groundwater Board in co-ordination with the groundwater boards of all states in 2024, the Karnataka State Government is working to find out the total number of authorised and unauthorised borewells in the state. In the previous census held in 2019, Karnataka registered 14 lakh authorised borewells, but there was no conclusive report on the unauthorised borewells.

The census gains importance as the National Green Tribunal (NGT) has taken note of the rapidly depleting groundwater levels across India. Taking note of this, the Ministry of Environment, Forests and Climate Change (MoEFCC) has asked all State governments to submit a report on the groundwater levels and the measures taken to address the issue.

An official from the groundwater board said 14 lakh borewells in Karnataka include private, commercial, borewells for irrigation purposes. "Despite the emphasis on preserving and utilising surface water, 80 percent of water requirements for irrigation, and 5 percent of domestic water requirements are still dependent on groundwater. Only 20-30 percent surface water is used for irrigation."

The official explained that the groundwater situation in Karnataka had improved during 2021, when the state received good rain. There was a decline in the year 2023 because of the drought. This led to increased dependency on groundwater, reducing the groundwater table.

"The borewell reports should be generated annually and the data should be updated to the Centre, by the state. Instead, the ministry carries out the census once every five years. Government departments including minor irrigation, panchayat, groundwater board and forest department of each state are a part of the census to collate the data," the official added.

Minor Irrigation and Science and Technology Minister NS Boseraju told TNIE, "In the last five years there would have been a 20-25 percent increase in the number of borewells. Despite the Central and State governments keeping a record of the numbers of borewells, there are many unauthorised borewells. Once the census is done, we will know how many of these are built without authorisation, and they will be closed down."

The NGT team member that passed the order said, "It is clear that there will be severe shortage of ground water by 2025. While the government agencies are taking baby steps to address the issue, people's attitude is a major concern. Everyone has borewells today. Water is drawn from it, despite getting pipe water. Rainwater harvesting is not being implemented. Everyone wants to take a shower and have a bath tub. There is a lack of awareness when it comes to water conservation."

Despite the Central and State govts keeping a record of the borewells, there are many unauthorised borewells. Once the census is done, we will know how many of these are built without authorisation

Landlords flout rules, drill borewells

MOHAMMED YACOOB @Bengaluru

DESPITE rules that drilling of borewells in Bengaluru should be carried out only after obtaining permission from the Bangalore Water Supply and Sewerage Board (BWSSB), unruly landlords have already started digging unauthorised borewells, just opposite the Bangalore Electricity Supply Company (BESCOM) office at Tala Cauvery Layout, which falls under the HAL ward. An illegal borewell was dug on December 8.

Mohammed Mudassir, Assistant Executive Engineer, BWSSB, A Narayanpura Sub-Division, who inspected the spot and stopped the unauthorised borewell's construction said that he has sent a letter to the Ground Water Authority, asking them to take action. "As soon as I received information that a borewell was being drilled without permission, I rushed to the spot. Upon inquiring with labourers and drivers, it was found that there was no permission from BWSSB and Ground Water Authority for the same. I asked them to stop and went to inspect another work on Anasandra Palya Main Road. By the time I returned, the workers had abandoned the site. I have registered a complaint with the Ground Water Authority and shared details of the borewell drilling truck (KA-06-Z-7477) for legal action against them," said Mudassir.

Karnataka Ground Water Authority Deputy Director G Jayanna, however, stated that in Bengaluru limits, where the Cauvery water supply is less or absent, the BWSSB can allow drilling of borewells for drinking water purposes, albeit only after an inspection. "BWSSB has been given powers of imposing penalty and also seizing borewell-drilling vehicles if it is found that unauthorised borewells were being dug up," he said. A resident of the HAL ward said that in the Mahadevpura Zone for the last three years, rampant illegal borewells are coming up, especially around lakes.

SC asks State to approach HC over PRR compensation

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

@Bengaluru

THE Supreme Court has directed the State to approach the High Court in connection with the issue of compensation for land losers of the Bangalore Development Authority's Rs21,091-crore Peripheral Ring Road (PRR) project. The compensation controversy has held back the 73-km project planned 17 years ago to decongest the city.

The court on Wednesday told Karnataka's Advocate General K Shashi Kiran Shetty, who appeared on behalf of BDA to approach the High Court. Its order said, "It will be open to the State to move an appropriate application before the HC indicating grounds and justification. The prayer will be considered in accordance with the law."

With many land losers firm in their demand that they would part with their lands only if they are paid as per the 2013 Land Acquisition Act, the project has come to a standstill now. Hence, the BDA approached the apex court seeking permission to award a higher compensation.

The SC had in its ruling on January 22, 2022, exempted BDA from compensating land losers under the new Act as the compensation cost would go up enormously. A BDA explained that Rs 15,475 crore would have to be paid only towards land acquisition cost. When asked about the next step of action, Shetty told TNIE, "Let the government decide upon the rate it wants to pay the farmers. After that, we can approach the High Court." PRR is proposed on 1,810 acres of land in the three taluks of Bangalore North, Bangalore East and Anekal and will encircle the city by commencing on Tumkur Road on NH-48 at NICE Road junction and end on Hosur Road on NH-44 at NICE Road start point.

Suo motu PIL taken up on staff crunch

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court on Thursday took up suo motu cognisance of the shortage of staff in the hostels run by the Social Welfare Department based on a media report and issued notice to the State government.

A division bench of Chief Justice Prasanna B Varale and Justice Krishna S Dixit passed the order.

Referring to a media report which is the basis for the suo motu action, the court observed that two to three hostels were functioning under one warden and superintendent, thus bringing down academic standards and lowering performances of students. Therefore, it thought it fit to take suo motu cognisance of the matter, the court said.

The court also expressed concern over the issue of age limit of candidates being expired due to delay in identifying vacant posts in departments from time to time and failing to fill those posts.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

15th December: One last thought about Time Travel, today. One way to see into the past, if not to actually go there, is to look at the stars. If you are looking at a distant star then the light which enters your eye set out on its journey thousands, or even tens of thousands, of years ago. If we had sufficiently sophisticated equipment we would be able to analyse such light to see real events which took place before our planet was created!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr 20)

If you're handling complex emotional situations, please be flexible and alter long-standing arrangements where necessary. Partners will come to appreciate your wisdom and maturity, with welcome results all round. Not only that, but they'll come to see that you were right.

TAURUS (Apr 21 - May 21)

Please enjoy your dreams but avoid all forms of intrigue and unconventional behaviour. This is a moment to keep your head below the parapet and stay away from risky situations. Peace and quiet are of the essence. But do be honest about your doubts, share them with partners and seek reassurance.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)

Ambitious Gemini-ians are now well into a phase which emphasises the role of personal contacts. This means, as the old cliché runs, that who you know is at least as important as what you know, if not more so. And that means that you are ready for your next step.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)

You have every right to feel that others have not yet done their best. Wise and intelligent person that you are, you should be the one to offer an olive branch and hold out the hand of friendship. Financial questions should have been answered - at least for now. But they'll return as soon as conditions change.

LEO (July 24 - Aug 23)

Money matters are about to grab the headlines, not in any dramatic sense, just in the form of routine affairs that must be dealt with now before they get any worse. Keep up to date with all bills and loans, but query anything you don't actually think you owe.

VIRGO (Aug 24 - Sept 23)

Venus' motion today may not have immediate consequences. However, within the week you should become aware of new feelings, especially of a romantic nature. You will learn to appreciate qualities in loved ones the tone annoyed you; it's amazing how you have changed!

You must be prepared to involve colleagues and associates in your plans. Within an overall context of co-operation you will be able to make the most of your emotional intensity, determination and unparalleled leadership qualities. And that can't be bad!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov 23 - Dec 22)

As time passes and the seasons turn, you should begin to plan your health regime. Clean up your diet - this doesn't mean eating less, just healthily - and take more exercise. Mercury, you see, is encouraging you to consider new ways of improving your lifestyle.

CAPRICORN (Dec 23 - Jan 20)

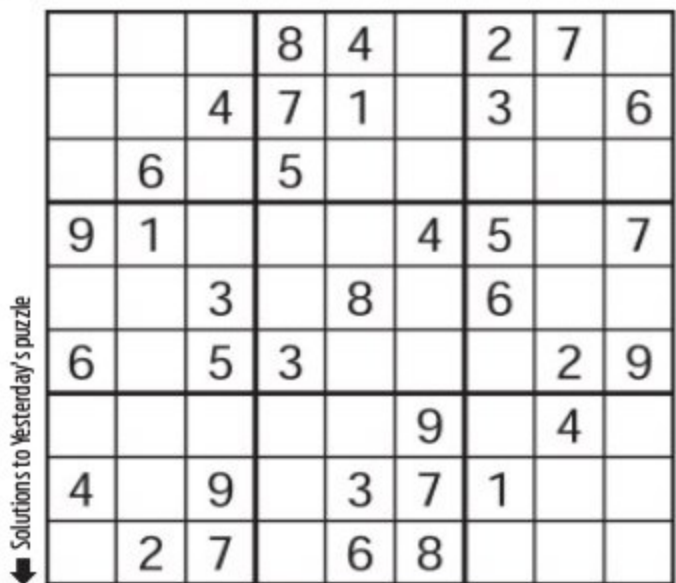

It looks as if someone's trying hard to pressurise you into making an early decision. However, you may smile and ignore their protestations. You will be on top in all discussions, negotiations and meetings. And your strong position is partly due to your past good judgments.

AQUARIUS (Jan 21 - Feb 19)

An unexpected turn of events may prompt you to alter plans or even change the whole direction of your life. The important consideration from your point of view is to take the initiative rather than wake up and discover that fate has taken your decisions for you.

PISCES (Feb 20 - Mar 20)

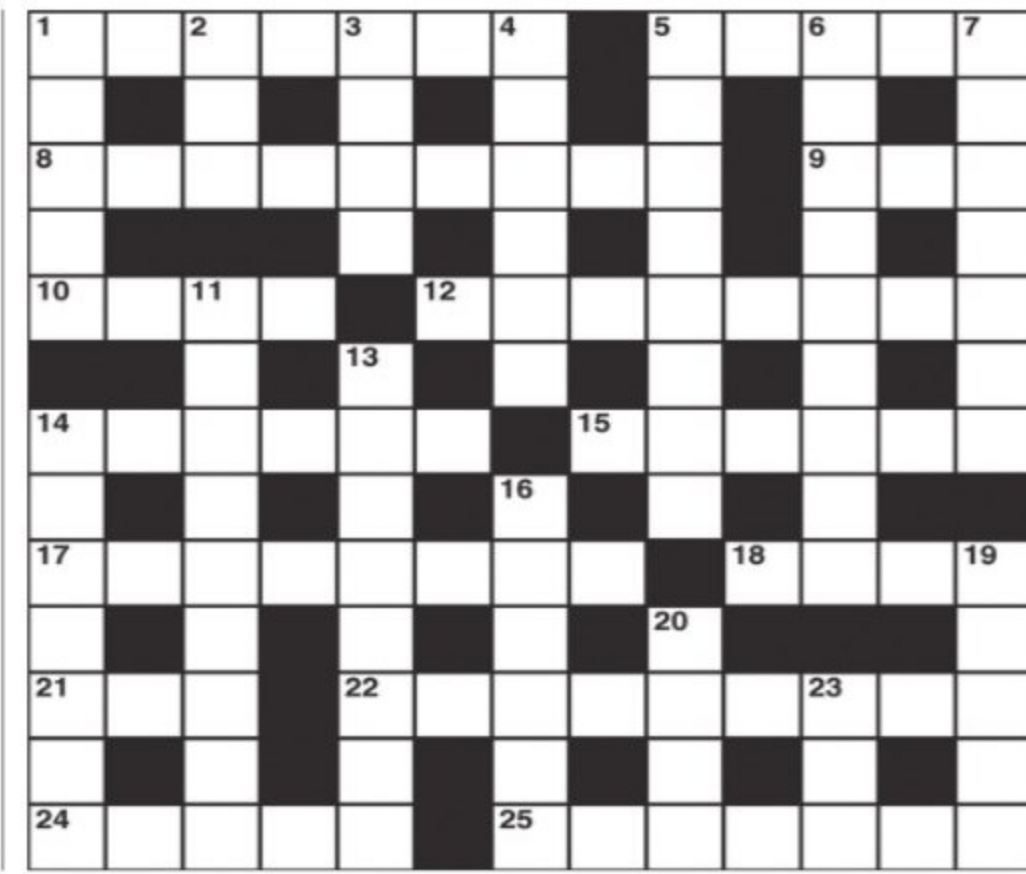

You are now coming under Venus' glorious sway in an entirely new way, surely a sign that your social life and emotional morale are about to improve. Allow more time for pleasure, gratification and self-indulgence. This particular pattern peaks next week.

Bill to protect lawyers from violence passed

PRAMODKUMAR VAIDYA @Belagavi

AS the Legislative Assembly passed the Karnataka Prohibition of Violence Against Advocate Bill, 2023, on Thursday, Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister HK Patil allayed fears regarding misuse of law and assured considering the changes recommended by members while framing the rules.

Moving the Bill for passage, Patil said the crime in this regard has been subtly defined in the Bill and there would be no chance of misusing it. Violence means any activity which would endanger the life of an advocate or cause bodily harm or criminal intimidation to obstruct him/her from discharging their duty in respect of pending litigation or a case pending before any court, tribunal or authority.

Stating that the Bill has the backing of a verdict of the Supreme Court, the minister said it ensures the lawyers to perform their professional functions without intimidation, hindrance, harassment or improper interference.

When the security of lawyers is threatened while discharging their duties, the Bill would be adequately safeguarded by the authorities.

However, BJP member Suresh Kumar suggested considering the inclusion of a compensation element to benefit advocates if they failed to pursue their functions lifelong due to violence, and recommended to Karnataka Bar Council whenever he/she is arrested by the police in respect of cognisable offence apart from president and secretary of the respective Advocates' Association, as mentioned in the Bill.

Congress member AS Ponnanna stated that the same in Rajasthan has imprisonment for up to seven years, but in this Bill, it was six months to three years. He suggested increasing the imprisonment term in the coming days.

Somanna wants BSY, son at meeting with high command

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @Bengaluru

THOUGH the BJP high command is ready to meet the delegation led by former minister V Somanna to set right certain issues, the meeting has been deferred as the latter is insisting that former chief minister B S Yediyurappa and son B Y Vijayendra, BJP state chief, should also be called to the national capital for a face-to-face meeting.

It is to be seen whether the high command, especially Union Home Minister Amit Shah, concede to their demand or placate them by promising certain posts in the party.

The delegation's plan is to reveal certain facts, including the reasons for the defeat of Somanna, a Veerashaiva Lingayat, in both Varanasi and Chamarajanagar in the May 10 assembly polls. They also want to explain how Yediyurappa allegedly tried to snub Veerashaiva Lingayat leaders within the BJP for over a decade, sources said.

Somanna had earlier said he would lead a delegation, including Basavanagouda Patil Yatnal and others, to the party high command in December first week. But the Central leadership was busy with the appointment of chief ministers in Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan and Chhattisgarh.

Despite Vijayendra paying courtesy calls to all state leaders to take them into confidence ahead of the 2024 Lok Sabha polls, Yatnal has not yet given him an audience. He did not attend the BJP Legislature Party meeting in Belagavi on Tuesday either, giving a clear indication that he is sulking over the recent appointments of Vijayendra as state chief and R Ashoka as Leader of the Opposition (LoP).

Somanna, who is aspiring to contest the Lok Sabha polls from Tumakuru to prove his mettle, held a rally at Siddaganga Mutt recently.

But the party leadership is afraid it would become tough for him and the party to win the seat, unless he and Yediyurappa patch up. Recently, Vijayendra met Tumakuru MP G S Basavaraju and sought his help to patch up with Somanna.

Meanwhile, the Congress, especially KPCC president D K Shivakumar, is closely watching Somanna's moves, with the hope of inducting him into the party. Somanna, who was forced by Shah to give up his Govindarajana assembly seat in Bengaluru and move to Chamarajanagar and Varanasi, as part of the party's strategy, eventually lost both seats.

In fact, Somanna had wished to contest only from Chamarajanagar, and if he had focused on it, he would have won, a BJP leader said.

BJP against Oppressed Classes: Siddu

FIROZ ROZINDAR @Belagavi

ACCUSING the BJP of being anti-Dalit and anti-Oppressed Classes, CM Siddaramaiah challenged the saffron party and its elected representatives to get Special Component Plan and Tribal Sub Plan (SCP/TSP) Act passed by the Centre, for the welfare of the Dalits and Tribals. Participating in a discussion over the presentation of the Supplementary Estimate in the Council on Thursday, he also asked the BJP leaders to get the Act implemented in the BJP-ruled states.

"I challenge the BJP MLCs and MPs to speak to PM Narendra Modi and get a similar Act implemented in the country," Siddaramaiah said.

Explaining the Act, Siddaramaiah said it was brought in 2013 by the Congress government to ensure allocation of a budget in proportion to the population of SC/STs in the state.

"Till that time, the government was granting Rs 6,000-7,000 crore only for the welfare of SCs and STs. But after the Act, which we brought and became the second state in the country after AP to do so, the allocation touched over Rs 30,000 crore annually for these communities," he said.

Vijayendra miffed with BJP leaders at Cong dinner

Belagavi: The attendance of three BJP legislators, ST Somashekhar, AH Vishwanath and Shivaram Hebbar, at a dinner party of the Congress, during the Congress Legislature Party meeting at Shoonya Resort, on Wednesday has stirred up a hornet's nest. On Thursday, BJP state president BY Vijayendra said the issue of party legislators going to the CLP meet was serious and that he would discuss the matter with the three legislators. However, KPCC chief DK Shivakumar clarified that no legislators from any other party attended the CLP meet, but they did attend the dinner party.

Yatnal demands ration cards for transgender members

Bengaluru: Senior BJP MLA Basanagouda Patil Yatnal has written to CM Siddaramaiah, demanding that ration cards be issued to eligible transgender community members, and that a single window be provided for them. On December 7, TNIE had reported, "No ration cards: Transgender persons deprived of Siddu's guarantee." The report had highlighted the issues faced by transgenders in getting ration cards, because of which they were not getting benefits under Anna Bhagya or Gruhalakshmi schemes.

No ministers: BJP MLAs stage walkout

Belagavi: BJP members staged a walkout over the absence of ministers during the discussion on Uttara Karnataka Development. BJP MLA Sidhu Savadi was speaking about regional disparity, when BJP's Karkala MLA Sunil Kumar pointed out the empty chairs of ministers and questioned, "Such an important discussion is on, but where are the Ministers?" Other members joined in and urged Deputy Speaker Rudrapa Lamani to adjourn the House until the ministers returned, but he refused. Eventually, they staged a walkout.

State to ask Centre to name four new airports

ENS @Belagavi

THE state government has decided to recommend the Centre to name four airports in the state after renowned personalities. Industries Minister MB Patil announced in the Assembly on Thursday that Belagavi airport will be named after Kittur Rani Chennamma, Hubballi airport after Sangolli Rayanna, Vijayapura airport after Basaveshwara and Shivamogga airport after Kuvempu.

For a long time, the people had been demanding the governments to name the four airports after noted personalities mentioned above, but none of the dispensations in the past were keen on making it possible. Under pressure from all quarters, the state government finally decided to recommend the Centre to rename them.

During a discussion on the issue, there were several other suggestions from legislators, but Patil said the government has finally taken a decision on it.

BJP MLA Sunil Kumar proposed the name of Koti Channayya for Mangaluru airport and appealed to the government to consider it. However, Speaker UT Khader said people in several parts of Mangaluru region have also recommended the name of Rani Abakka for the same. Khader said there should be a discussion on this matter and a suitable name should be finalised later. There was some commotion in the House after MLA Prasad Abayya said the Mysuru airport be named after Tippu Sultan. However, members of the Opposition shouted slogans in protest and opposed it by saying, "Bharat Mata Ki Jai."

350 new BS VI buses to help KSRTC meet demand

KSRTC slaps fine of Rs 5.25 L for ticket-less travel

KSRTC has collected a fine of Rs 5.25 lakh for ticketless travel within Karnataka and neighbouring states from passengers. A press release from the bus corporation on Thursday, said that the checking staff who inspected 42,833 buses in November found that 3,285 passengers were travelling without tickets. The checking staff have identified 3,279 pilferage cases, in which the bus corporation lost revenue of Rs 74,334. They said that disciplinary action will be initiated against KSRTC staff who allowed the pilferage.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

IN a bid to meet the increasing demand for government buses after the rollout of the Shakti scheme, Karnataka State Road Transport Corporation (KSRTC) will be adding 350 BS VI Express buses. These buses will be deployed in rural areas where students and villagers have limited means for travel.

A senior KSRTC official said, "Due to Covid, the bus corporation's services incurred huge losses. We were handling operations without purchasing any new buses. However, after the launch of the Shakti scheme in June, there is a big demand for our services across the state and it is difficult to handle the surge with our current fleet."

Currently, the four bus corporations of the state - KSRTC, KKRTC, NWKRTC and BMTC - in total, operate 24,352 buses in Karnataka, driving a total distance of 66.98 lakh km every day.

"We have called for tenders for the procurement of 350 BS VI buses, which will largely be used to cater to the demands of rural areas in the state," he said.

The senior official said to meet passenger demand, they have refurbished over 700 old buses that have clocked over 10 lakh km, and added, "To meet the increasing demand, we have refurbished old buses at a cost of Rs 3 lakh. A new bus will cost Rs 40 lakh."

Hic, hic! Not boozy, we just love the bottle, says madya priya community

SUNIL PATIL @Belagavi

WHAT's in a name, you say? A lot, say these tipplers: Call us not drunkards, but 'madya priya' (lovers of liquor). Pitching themselves as important consumers who are the highest tax contributors to the government, a bunch of bibulous agitators gathered at the protest tent near Suvarna Vidhana Soudha in Belagavi to put forth their demands.

The 'Karnataka Madyapana Priyara Horatagarara Sangha' (Karnataka Liquor Lovers Association), as they term themselves, submitted a memorandum to Labour Minister Santosh Lad, listing 20 demands, of which the first was that henceforth, they should not be called 'drunkards' but respectfully termed 'madya priya'. They also urged the government to reserve 10 per cent of the revenue from annual liquor sales for the welfare of booze consumers, give a monthly scholarship to meritorious children of quaffers, set up a Board for the community, give Rs 10 lakh as compensation to the family if the liquor lover were to die due to alcoholism, and provide a package of Rs 2 lakh for the marriage ceremonies of their family members.

Moreover, the government should increase liquor prices only after taking association members into confidence, besides sundry demands like quality food and clean toilets in bars and restaurants. They also demanded action against bar and liquor stores which demand money over and above the MRP on alcohol bottles.

The devotees of Bacchus made another pertinent point: that bars have opened in temple and school premises in some places, and should be shut immediately to maintain the sanctity of these places. Further, suitable land should be selected while opening a liquor shop.

Minister Lad received the memorandum and assured them that he would discuss their demands with Chief Minister Siddaramaiah. Having put forth their points of view, association president Venkatesh-gowda Borehalli, members Ramaswami, Mohan Naik, AM Siddesh and others went away, pleased as punch.

Central intel team visits Manoranjan's residence

K SHIVA KUMAR @Mysuru

A TEAM of officers from Central intelligence and internal security visited Parliament security breach case accused Manoranjan's house at Vijayanagar here on Thursday.

The team led by Central Intelligence Deputy Director Praven spoke with Manoranjan's parents and searched his room. They also examined Manoranjan's social media accounts and enquired about his friends and others who were in touch with him.

Security has been tightened around the house and nobody is allowed inside. Investigations revealed that Manoranjan had disconnected from all his friends in Mysuru. Sagar Sharma from Lucknow, another accused in the case, visited Manoranjan's house twice for lunch in May, according to sources.

Manoranjan, a boxer, had trained a boy in his neighbourhood. Akash, his neighbour, said Manoranjan taught his son boxing. Manoranjan never used to carry a cellphone. Manoranjan did not participate in any agitations in Mysuru and has no criminal cases against him, Akash added.

Manoranjan had approached local BJP MP Pratap Simha's office stating that his father Devaraje Gowda is close to the MP and managed to get passes to attend the parliamentary proceedings in Delhi, the sources said.

Manoranjan also managed to get a visitor's pass from the MP's office and had visited the old Parliament building alone, the sources said.

Meanwhile, Devaraje Gowda appealed to the media not to bother him and his wife any more as they have nothing to say. He said that his wife is a cardiac patient and she is under tremendous stress now.

Congress demands action against BJP MP

Pratap Simha

Congress leaders on Thursday demanded action against BJP MP Pratap Simha for issuing passes to persons who breached Lok Sabha security. Former MP VS Ugrappa and former MLC Ramesh Babu said action should be taken against the BJP MP for giving passes to people without verifying their antecedents. "I have also given passes to many people. Passes are issued to known people and those coming from our constituencies. Simha has issued passes to not just a person from Mysuru, but also Lucknow and other places," Ugrappa said. The MP and his party must explain to people if the intruders were known to him. Ramesh Babu said the Lok Sabha Speaker should suspend the BJP MP.

‘Central policies flawed, Kerala needs ₹26K cr to get out of crisis’

ENS @TPuram

CHIEF Minister Pinarayi Vijayan on Thursday said that the state urgently needs Rs 26,226 crores to wriggle out from the crisis caused by the flawed policies of the central government. “The estimated loss due to central measures will be between 2 and 3 lakh crore rupees in the next five years,” he said on the sideline of the Nava Kerala Sadas outreach programme.

The CM urged the Centre to refrain from encroaching on the State’s economic autonomy. “The central government is playing a dangerous game by gradually eroding the Constitution’s economic federalism,” he said.

“More than a thousand projects worth Rs 82,000 crores planned to be implemented by the state through KIFB are in various stages. Central interventions will lead to the abandonment of these projects.”

He explained, “Kerala is one of the States that has radically reorganized the GST department under the new GST system, resulting in significant growth in the State’s revenue. However, factors such as the Centre’s failure to provide GST compensation have squeezed the state financially.”

Kerala spl court acquits accused in rape of 6-yr-old

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Idukki

THE special fast track court, Kattappana on Thursday witnessed dramatic turn of events after the judge V Manju pronounced the verdict in the rape and murder case of a 6-year-old girl in Vandiperiyar, acquitting the accused in the case.

The court delivered the verdict citing lack of clinching evidence and glaring lapses in the trial as reasons for the acquittal of 24-year-old Arjun, a resident of Vandiperiyar in Idukki.

The victims, parents, who broke into tears hearing the verdict, alleged that this verdict was given because the accused had influence.

“She was born to her parents after a long wait of 14 years. He ruthlessly killed and hung my child inside our prayer room. How can we forgive him? Where is the justice?,” the child’s grandmother lamented.

Defence lawyer SK Adityan said, “Because of the improper police investigation, a youngster had lost 2 precious years of his life. He was ill treated and physically assaulted and forcefully made an accused in a rape case.”

He added that the SHO should

THE announcement at railway stations kept stating that it would go via KSR. The train reached Guntakal at 1.30 pm on Monday and the TTEs directed the passengers to alight. “There was panic and confusion. The TTEs showed us that as per the reservation charts on their tablets, the tickets to Bengaluru only show LTT to Guntakal,” Suresh said.

Passengers were told to claim a refund for the untravelled portion of the journey,” he said. With the escalator on Platform 4 at Guntakal not working, it was an ordeal for passengers, especially senior citizens and women, to exit the station. “My family of four along with an elderly couple booked a six-seater cab and we paid Rs 13,500 to reach Bengaluru. It was a terrible experience for all of us,” he added.

Many paid cabs between Rs 8,000 and Rs 8,500 to reach Bengaluru, he said.

Lawyer BS Prashant and his wife were in the 3-tier AC coach. “We were really shaken and could not believe we had to get down midway. My wife and I celebrated our wedding anniversary in Mumbai and were returning to Bengaluru. The return trip took away all our joy and happiness,” Prashant said.

The message sent on December 7 by the Railways said the train from LTT was diverted via Guntakal, Renikunta, Jolarpettai and Salem and will not touch stations from Anantapur to Dharmapuri Junction. With SBC not specifically mentioned, passengers had no clue about it.

Divisional railway managers of Guntakal and Bengaluru did not respond to the calls by TNIE. The general manager of SWR too did not respond.

RERA fines builders of 440 projects over audit

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

IN a first such instance, the Karnataka Real Estate Regulatory Authority (K-RERA) on Thursday slapped a penalty on builders of 440 projects across the State, who have not submitted annual audit reports despite repeated notices. The total penalty levied on these projects comes to roughly around Rs 40 crore.

Senior RERA officials told TNIE that the audit report in question pertains to fiscal 2021-2022 for which the report (Form 7) was to be submitted to the Authority by Sept 2022. “This is of crucial importance to home buyers as it makes clear the amount collected from home buyers and how much of it was utilised in the construction of projects. It is aimed at introducing transparency. These projects were constructed at a cost ranging between Rs 2 crore and Rs 200 crore,” he said.

“For financial year ending March 2022, the audit report had to be uploaded on our website within a six-month period, as mandated under Section 4(2) (L) (D) of the RERA Act. It was not done in the case of these 440 projects. We issued three circulars last year to the promoters, reminding them about it on Oct 13, Nov 16 and Dec 16. The deadline for submission was also extended to Jan 15, 2023,” the official said. Builders were sent e-mail notices this year, followed by physical notices on the urgent need to come out with its reports, but the builders ignored them, he added.

Another official said the penalty levied was 0.5 percent of the project cost. “The notices on the penalty were issued today (Dec 14) and will reach the promoters within two days. They need to pay up the penalty within 30 days of the receipt of the notice,” he said. Failure to pay up within the stipulated deadline will force K-RERA to take action under Section (40) (1) of the RERA Act, which deals with recovery enforced through land arrears, the official said.

Among the projects for which penalty have been levied are Keystone Projects, Arihant Foundation and Homes Limited, Classic Builders and Icon Infra Shelters Private Limited.

“This is just the first such action, we have only taken action against projects which are registered under us after 2021. In the next stage, we will take up projects before 2021 and so on,” he explained.

REVOKE SUSPENSION OF MPs, PLUG SECURITY GAPS IN PARLIAMENT

DRAMATIC intrusions into the Lok Sabha from the visitors' gallery on Wednesday wiped the smirk off the ruling party's face after its surprise 3-1 victory in the recent assembly elections. A serious security breach in the temple of democracy right under the nose of the BJP, with cameras capturing all the drama, was embarrassing for the ruling party since muscular nationalism is its article of faith. By doing it on the anniversary of the parliament attack by terrorists in 2001, the plotters sought to thumb their nose at the security apparatus. What was more mortifying for the treasury benches was that the two intruders, Manoranjan D and Sagar Sharma, had passes issued on the recommendation of BJP's Mysuru MP, Prathap Simha. Their public gallery pass gave them entry from 11.30 am to 12.15 pm, yet they got to stay on and jumped into the Lok Sabha chamber around 1.01 pm. One of them is said to have done a recce of the old parliament building and found that shoes were not properly checked, hence their ploy to smuggle smoke canisters within them. Eight security personnel have since being suspended. Instead of cowering, the parliamentarians nabbed the duo and gave them their version of justice—a thrashing like mobs do—before handing both over to the security personnel.

While terror charges have been slapped against them, they prima facie appeared more like amateurs. Their slogans—Tanashahi nahin chalegi (Won't allow dictatorship), Bharat Mata ki jai and Jai Bheem—failed to convey their objective in any meaningful way. Why would anyone put himself or herself under such risk without properly communicating the purpose? Professional aandolanjivis, as the BJP pejoratively seeks to describe them, such as Greenpeace hyperventilate their ideology while launching risky protests like the one against a nuclear plant in France a few years ago. Only a comprehensive probe can reveal the motive behind the parliament trespass.

With the government on the back foot, the opposition went on the offensive and demanded action against BJP's Simha. They had every right to do so, as the rulebook says that any MP seeking a visitor's pass must provide a statement confirming personal acquaintance with the guest and take full responsibility for him or her. Instead, 14 opposition MPs were suspended, which was a sad commentary on managing dissent. The suspensions ought to be revoked in the interest of democracy.

PUBLIC HUMILIATION AS PUNISHMENT MUST STOP

AN inhuman incident played out in a Karnataka village when a family stripped a woman, paraded her naked, tied her to a pole and thrashed her after their daughter eloped with the woman's son. While the police swiftly rescued her and arrested members of the accused family, the incident left the state in shock. It took place on the outskirts of the city of Belagavi, where the legislature is in session. Disrobing women as a form of degradation is common in our country and the Karnataka incident was just one among many. Earlier this year, Kuki women in Manipur were stripped, groped, paraded and raped by a mob during ethnic clashes; a young pregnant woman was stripped and beaten in Rajasthan by her own family; and a woman was beaten, allegedly gang-raped, her head tonsured and paraded on the streets of Delhi. It is disturbing that women themselves often aid and abet such brutalities against other women. The reasons can range from love affairs and property disputes to supposed transgressions by members of a lower caste.

Stripping as a punishment is increasingly becoming regular—even men are not spared. Perpetrators at times garland their victim with shoes, blacken their face, urinate and spit on the person to dominate—a humiliation that can become vigilante frenzy when class, caste and community issues collide. It is seen as instant justice for a perceived wrong and reflects a depraved mindset. It also reflects utter lawlessness and the collective failure of society to stop such savagery. Assault and disrobing of a woman in a public place is punishable with three to seven years of imprisonment, but this does not seem to be a deterrent. We need a system that quickly brings the perpetrators to book and deals stringently with them.

It is tragic that society watches on silently. There is some degree of outrage when such videos go viral on social media, but the incidents are soon forgotten. Political parties step in only when it suits their purpose. It is time to question what ails our society and awaken its collective conscience, and also stand up as a people against these shameful crimes. Such incidents bring disgrace to the nation. The authorities must use all means to take action and deliver justice to the assaulted women.

QUICK TAKE

TAKE DOWN FAKE CALL CENTRES

FBI director Christopher Wray recently visited India with a bunch of requests. One of them was for closer coordination on probes into fake call centres. Unlike cyber fraud, which is often masterminded from smaller towns such as Jamtara, fake call centres are run from some of our biggest cities. A month ago, the Enforcement Directorate in Kolkata and the police in Noida busted two fake call centres that were fleecing westerners. In October, five staffers at a fake call centre in Mumbai jumped out of their first-floor office during a police raid. The technology to track such fraudsters is there; all that is needed is closer and speedier collaboration between the investigators.

THE Northeast ethnic cauldron is known for regularly boiling over. This is only to be expected. Long before the arrival of modern administration brought by the British, this cauldron has always had a mix of "state-carrying populations" and "non-state" tribesmen. This resulted in a unique internal friction that was so well characterised by James C Scott in his book The Art of Not Being Governed: An Anarchist History of Upland Southeast Asia. Much of the ethnic turmoil the region is witnessing today is a continuation—and sometimes a complication—of this tension within.

As non-state tribesmen wake up to the reality of the modern state and begin aspiring for one for themselves, they find their statehood already defined. Much of the insurgencies in the region, as well as the ethnic rivalries, are consequences of this unsettled question of identity. The current ethnic violence in Manipur between the Kuki-Zo tribes and Meiteis has elements of this, though there were also other immediate triggers. It is another story that the Union and state governments have not done enough to resolve the crisis seven months into it.

Demonstrated in this unfolding drama is also the contention that identity is fluid and dynamic, and not by any means static or fixed. Identity, like so many attributes of the human story, is fiction. It has all to do with choosing to belong to one story or the other of peoplehood and nationhood. Yuval Noah Harari in Sapiens: A Brief History of Humankind and, much before him, Benedict Anderson in Imagined Communities pointed out that humans have a unique ability to tell stories and, on the basis of these stories, unite to build communities.

This capability came after the cognitive revolution that humans are estimated to have gone through 60,000 years ago. It was brought about by certain evolutionary neurological changes in the human brain circuitry, giving us the ability to create and understand symbols. In this scheme, community identities are not intrinsically determined, but depend on the ideas of community built and internalised by groups of people. These stories can obviously be accommodative or exclusive; identities can accordingly expand and evolve, or narrow down and become more rigid.

The 1826 Treaty of Yandabo—in which the British ended the Burmese occupation of Assam by direct intervention and in Manipur by indirect assistance—marked the start of the colonial era in the northeastern region. British Assam, which then was the entire Northeast except for the kingdoms of Tripura and Manipur, was merged with Bengal. Manipur was allowed to remain a protectorate state.

From the start, the pattern of British administration in Assam reflected the challenges of dealing with this mix of state and non-state communities. The plains of Assam, which were already familiar with the centralised bureaucracy of a state, were much easier for the British to handle. This was unlike the non-state spaces, where the authorities of a village, tribe and clan did not run beyond the closed communities. So the British introduced a normal land revenue administration in the plains, but left the surrounding hills unadministered and, after the Government of India Act of 1919, demarcated them as 'excluded' or 'partially excluded' areas.

The scant importance the British initially gave the region is also evident from the fact that they withdrew most of their regular troops from there not long after the Burma debacle. In 1835, when the Bruce brothers' experiment in tea plantations began succeeding phenomenally, British officer E R Grange conceived of the idea of raising a civil militia that was "less paid than the military, better armed than the police" to aid the administration. This, called the Cachar Levy, met the British needs well. Three years when the CRPF is around.

Long association with state police organisations, exposure to the intricacies of different law-and-order contingencies, and insulation from political pressure make the CRPF the most sought-after force to deal with such situations. The same cannot be said about local police. I am reminded of what a young superintendent of police (SP) told me once: "I have Congress police and Communist police under me, but not the SP's police." Unionism in state police forces has led to the open flaunting of allegiances to various political parties. Trusting them with confidential details of operations is fraught with risk.

The Enforcement Directorate has emerged as one of the main anti-corruption agencies in the country. But as a finance ministry outfit, it lacks a large security network of its own. This gap is filled by CRPF, which can provide diverse teams at various locations at the same time

The ED is often in action at multiple locations, requiring the simultaneous deployment of a large number of personnel to ensure safety, security and unhindered searches and confiscations. The CRPF—trained and conditioned for movement at short notice to different parts of the country—with its mastery in handling a variety of duties, becomes the first choice.

The ED's raids and searches are planned and executed with utmost confidentiality. Follow-up actions are immediate, such as recoveries, confiscations and arrests. Imagine all these going on in as many as 20-odd locations in different parts of the country. Only an organisation such as the CRPF, with an all-India network of support systems, can provide the required backup effectively. Its diverse composition and core competency developed over a period of time, apart from its apolitical professional history, are added advantages.

Vallabhbhai Patel would have been happy that the force he saved from being disbanded due to its colonial legacy as the Crown Representative Police is proving to be a force for all seasons. From counter-insurgency to anti-terrorism and from riot control to anti-Naxalite operations, this versatile force with its highly flexible operating procedures is making rapid strides in tackling the ever-dynamic and expanding shades of the nation's internal security. Mind you, the iron man's voice was the lone voice for the retention of this central police against all others in the cabinet. And its soldiers to this day carry on in the spirit of 'We are not to ask why but to do and die'.

But with the economy doing well and the tax regime being what it is, economic offences are going to be on the rise. What we see today is only the tip of the iceberg. Anti-national elements are using hawala and other illegal money transfers to keep their coffers filled. Some greedy politicians are shamelessly amassing wealth under the pretext of party funding, and the quantum involved is going to be higher against the backdrop of improving economic activities. The ED may need its own dedicated armed wing and other security architecture as the classified offences falling within the purview of its mandated tasks are no less than thuggery—ever increasing in scope and spread.

6 wks for rules on digital device seizure

SC asks Centre to frame guidelines on search & seizure of devices during raids by agencies

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY
@ New Delhi

IN a significant development, the Supreme Court on Thursday granted the Central government six weeks to establish guidelines for the search and seizure of digital devices belonging to accused individuals during interrogations, arrests, or related incidents conducted by police and law enforcement agencies. Further hearings on this issue have been scheduled for February 6.

The apex court addressed a Public Interest Litigation (PIL) filed by the Foundation for Media Professionals (FMP), seeking safeguards and the creation of a Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) to prevent unreasonable interference by law enforcement agencies during interrogations or related procedures involving accused individuals.

A two-judge Bench, led by Justice Sanjay Kishan Kaul and also comprising Justice Sudhanshu Dhulia, expressed concern about the prolonged delay by the Centre in framing guidelines since 2021 and questioned the timeframe.

In its interim order, the Supreme Court directed all Central government agencies to strictly adhere to the CBI Manual for the search and seizure

SC to hear Mahua plea today

A two-judge Supreme Court bench, comprising Justices Sanjay Khanna and SVN Bhatti, will hear the plea of TMC leader Mahua Moitra at around 12 pm on Friday. The 49-year-old MP has knocked the doors of the top court on Monday, three days after her expulsion from Lok Sabha after the Lower House's Ethics Committee found her guilty in a 'cash for query' allegation. "The ethics committee order is unfair, unjust and arbitrary," read her petition, which sought enforcement of her fundamental rights under the Constitution. The petition said she was denied the principles of natural justice during the probe.

BSP MP gets conditional relief

In a majority verdict, a three-judge Supreme Court bench on Thursday conditionally suspended the conviction of former Bahujan Samaj Party (BSP) MP Afzal Ansari in a 2007 Gangster Act case. The order of the bench permitted Ansari, the former MP from Ghazipur constituency in Uttar Pradesh, to attend proceedings of the Lok Sabha. However, it restrained him from casting his vote in the House or drawing any perk. Ansari, a five-time MLA and two-time parliamentarian, was disqualified as MP of the Lok Sabha on May 1, as he was convicted and sentenced to four years in prison in the case.

RAPPED FOR SLUGGISH APPROACH

On December 6, the Supreme Court had expressed dissatisfaction with the delayed formulation of guidelines by the Centre for the search and seizure of personal digital devices by law enforcement agencies during raids on accused individuals. The two-judge bench, led by Justice Sanjay Kishan Kaul and also comprising Justice Sudhanshu Dhulia, criticised the government's sluggish approach, stating, "What have you (Centre) done so far? It has been more than two years in this particular PIL." The comments were made during the hearing of a Public Interest Litigation filed by the Foundation for Media Professionals.

of digital devices until the official guidelines are established by the Central government.

The FMP also requested the Top Court to direct the relevant authorities and probe agencies to develop comprehensive guidelines for the search and seizure of digital devices.

Senior advocate Nitya Ramakrishnan, representing the petitioners, emphasized the urgent need for guidelines and suggested taking copies of necessary data from devices instead of seizing the entire content.

Ramakrishnan highlighted that 300 journalists were raided in connection with the recent NewsClick case.

The petition emphasized the growing reliance on personal digital devices by media professionals, involving confidential information, private correspondence with sources, and remote collaboration for breaking news stories in the public interest.

The petitioner argued for specific legal safeguards to protect the right to privacy in the digital space.

Illegal recruitment agents conning Indians with lure of foreign jobs, says MEA

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

INDIA has issued an advisory urging people to be cautious when applying for jobs through unregistered recruitment agents, as unsuspecting individuals often fall victim to scams.

"It has been noticed that there is a significant increase in the number of overseas job seekers being duped by unregistered recruitment agents through fake job offers and overcharging ranging from ₹2-5 lakh. These unregistered/illegal agents operate without obtaining a license from the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA), which is mandatory for any recruitment for work abroad," states an advisory by MEA on Thursday.

Reports indicate that many illegal agents use platforms such as Facebook, WhatsApp, text messages, and other mediums. These agencies provide minimal or no details about their whereabouts and contacts, relying solely on WhatsApp for communication, making it challenging to verify the caller's location, identity, and the legitimacy of the job offer.

"Such agents also entice workers to accept jobs in difficult and life-threatening conditions. Instances of such recruitment have been reported for positions in various East European countries, certain Gulf countries, Central Asian countries, Israel, Canada, Myanmar, and the Lao People's Democratic Republic," added the MEA.

Job-seekers are advised to consider that a valid job offer should include an employment contract duly signed by the foreign employer, recruitment agent, and the emigrant worker.

"The employment contract must outline the terms and conditions of the job, including salary and other benefits. Valid job offers should enable the worker to emigrate based on an employment or work visa, excluding tourist visas," it said.

It said tourist visas should only be used for tourism purposes. Job-seekers should also be aware that reputable foreign employers typically cover the cost of airfare, boarding, lodging and insurance.

Maldives not to renew pact with India on hydrographic surveys in its territory

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

AFTER threatening to send Indian soldiers packing, the latest development from the Maldives is their decision not to renew an agreement with India for conducting hydrographic surveys of their waters.

Maldivian Undersecretary for Public Policy, under the newly elected President Mohamed Muizzu, stated on Thursday that the Maldivian administration has decided against renewing the hydrography agreement with India, which is valid until June 7th, 2024. The Maldivian government has conveyed this decision to India, according to reports.

India has refrained from making any comments on the matter so far.

India had signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the Maldives on cooperation in the field of hydrography five years ago (18th June 2019), during Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to Male.

According to the terms of this agreement, if one of the signatories wanted to terminate the agreement, it had to inform the other country at least six months before the term ended; otherwise, it would automatically renew for another five-year period.

The Maldivian government, under President Muizzu, wants to do away with what it refers to as 'secret bilateral meetings' signed by the former administration that they believe would endanger their independence and sovereignty.

Meanwhile, Khaleel stated on Thursday that the new President had promised 17 things during his first month in office. This is referred to as the Muizzu administration's 'Haftha 14' roadmap.

"The government has announced that it has achieved 100 per cent of its targets in the first month," Khaleel added, stating that President Muizzu made the decision after consulting his cabinet.

Maldives believes it is in its national interest to use its own army to conduct such surveys and protect sensitive information.

Meanwhile, the removal of Indian soldiers from Maldives was one of the pledges of President Muizzu. He said it during his first speech as President. However, there is no date on when this will be done. Muizzu got elected on October 1 and took his oath on November 18.

There are 24 military personnel managing one chopper, 25 managing the first Dornier, 26 the second Dornier. In addition there are two more for maintenance and engineering. Bringing the total to 77.

Notwithstanding the fact that Maldivian President Mohamed Muizzu made an announcement on their expulsion, the Indian soldiers continue to remain in the country due to their crucial role in relief and humanitarian efforts.

Indian warship to conduct exercise in Philippines

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

INDIAN warship INS Kadmat has docked in Philippines capital Manila, as part of the Navy's ongoing long-range operational deployment programme.

The ship reached Manila on December 12 and the exercise is aimed at bolstering maritime cooperation between India and Philippines, Indian Navy said.

The engagements planned between personnel of both the Navies during the port call include "professional interactions, subject matter expert exchange and cross-deck visits, aimed at enhancing cooperation and exchanging best practices," according to the Navy.

Visits by school children, and community outreach and social impact activities are also planned during the visit.

Post departure from Manila, a maritime partnership exercise is scheduled in the South China Sea between INS Kadmat and BRP Ramon Alcaraz, an off-shore patrol vessel of the Philippines Navy.

China lays claim over the South China Sea based on historical grounds. The Indian stand has been that the South China issue should be resolved amicably under the international laws.

The India-Philippine bilateral defence cooperation is based on capacity-building with training exchanges and visits of delegations. The Philippines became the first country to export the BrahMos missile system in January 2022 in a US$ 374.9 million deal.

Human death toll on rise as funds to mitigate man-animal conflicts shrink

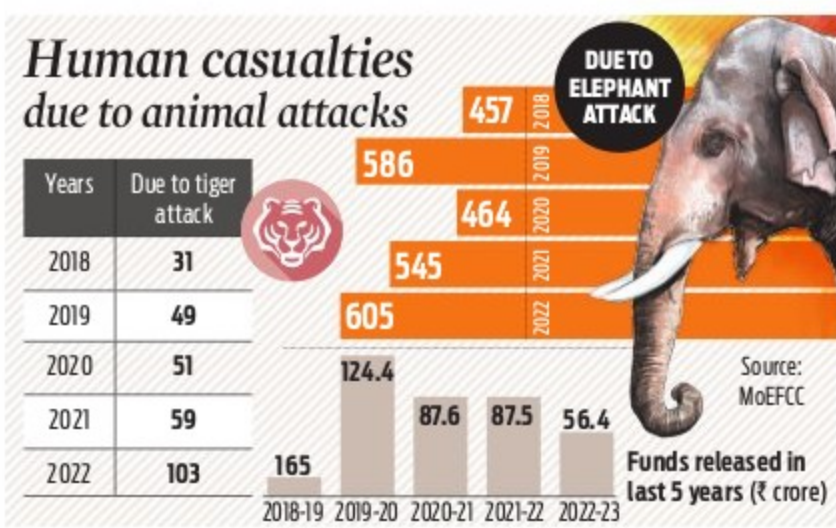

JITENDRA CHOUHEY @ New Delhi

THE toll of human deaths due to animal attacks has seen a steady rise in the last five years, even as the funds to mitigate such conflicts have dwindled.

In last five years, the Central government has cut the funds to mitigate human-wildlife conflicts by 67 per cent. The Wildlife Habitat Development Funds, which is meant for protection and restoration of animal habitats, was reduced by two-thirds. Funds under Project Tiger was cut by 50 per cent.

Consequently, the number of human deaths due to encounters with tigers and elephants have gone up, data shows.

According to official data released by Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change (MoEFCC), the habitat development fund released in 2018-19 was ₹165 crore, which shrunk to ₹56 crore in 2022-23. Funds released under the 'Project Tiger' was ₹322.9 crore in 2019, which was consistently reduced to ₹150.6 crore by 2023.

Maharashtra tops in terms of human deaths in encounters with tigers, while Odisha tops in deaths due to encounter with elephants. Elephants are proving to be more fatal to humans as the death toll is six times higher than in tiger attacks.

As per MoEFCC data, the number of human deaths due to tiger attacks reached an all-time high of 103 in 2022. The lowest was 31 in 2018, followed by 49 in 2019, 51 in 2020 and 59 in 2021.

The majority of deaths due to tiger attacks were reported from Maharashtra at 85. The other states that reported higher tiger attacks are UP, West Bengal and Madhya Pradesh.

In case of elephant attacks, the number of deaths reached to 605 in 2022. In 2018, 457 deaths were reported; 586 in 2019, 464 in 2020 and 545 in 2021.

Hemophilia patients in India get a shot in arm

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

THE first-of-its-kind national guidelines for the treatment of Persons with Hemophilia (PwH) were launched on Thursday, which aim to provide cost-effective treatment and reduce mortality and morbidity.

The guidelines were prepared by Hemophilia and Health Collective of North (HHCN), a body of India's leading healthcare professionals working in this area. It is in collaboration with the National Health Mission under the Union Health Ministry, and representatives from 16 states, including Kerala and Karnataka.

The guidelines suggest innovative products like Eemicizumab, now available in India, to be prophylactic to prevent hemophilia, an inherited blood disorder that causes blood to clot less, increasing the risk of bleeding or bruising.

The stress is on the need for comprehensive care, including the significance of timely diagnosis, physiotherapy and multidisciplinary care for persons with hemophilia.

The stress is on comprehensive care, including the significance of timely diagnosis, physiotherapy and multidisciplinary care

Dr Naresh Gupta, chairperson of HHCN, said the new guidelines recommend adopting advanced care like non-factor replacements or prophylaxis care to tackle bleeding.

He said this would reduce bleeding-related disability among hemophilia patients to about one per cent or less and would significantly cut overall health expenditure and improve their quality of life.

"Worldwide, countries are moving towards advanced non-replacement therapy or prophylaxis care because breakthrough bleeds remain an issue with the levels of protection offered by current FVIII concentrates," said Dr Gupta, who is a medical consultant Maulana

Azad Medical Colleges (MAMC) and advisor for Haemophilia, Lok Nayak Hospital.

In India, prophylaxis adoption is estimated at around 4 per cent. In contrast, in most other developing countries, it is over 20 per cent, and in developed countries, 80-90 per cent of patients are on prevention, said Gupta, the former Director Professor, MAMC.

India is home to the second largest population of patients living with Haemophilia, with an estimated 1,36,000 individuals grappling with hemophilia A. However, only around 21,000 are registered at present.

Nearly 80 per cent of hemophilia cases are undiagnosed in India as several hospitals and medical institutions lack screening capabilities for blood clotting, affecting the diagnosis of new cases. "We believe these guidelines are not just a step forward; these may mean a leap towards a brighter future for haemophilic treatment," Dr Gupta said, adding that without treatment, severe hemophilia patients may not survive through their teens.

Misa detainees likely to get relief

Former Congress govts in Chhattisgarh and Rajasthan discontinued pension in 2019

EJAZ KAISER @Raipur

WITH the BJP's return, the hopes of the detainees under the Maintenance of Internal Security Act (MISA) during the Emergency have revived in Chhattisgarh and Rajasthan where Congress governments had stopped the monthly pension scheme.

The Congress government in the two states decided in 2019 to discontinue the monthly pension programme launched by the erstwhile BJP in 2008 for the MISA detainees who were jailed during the 1975-77 Emergency period. In Rajasthan, the MISA relief was called as Rajasthan Democracy Protectors Felicitisation Fund Rules. In Chhattisgarh, there are around 300 MISA beneficiaries while in Rajasthan the number is 1,396.

After the ongoing winter session of Parliament ends on December 22, the president of Loktantra Senani Sangh and an MP Kailash Soni will be visiting Rajasthan and Chhattisgarh to hold crucial meetings for the MISA beneficiaries to work out further action plans.

"Among the first decisions that the Congress government took was to scrap the MISA pension scheme. After he visits Rajasthan, Kailash Soni ji will be in Raipur on a 3-day visit to attend meetings of MISA detainees," said Sachidanand Upasne, national vice-president of Loktantra Senani Sangh and a senior BJP leader. "We will meet the chief minister with a request to withdraw the special leave petition (SLP) filed by the Congress-led Chhattisgarh government in the Supreme Court, and provide the 'samman Nidhi' (pension amount) since 2019 when it was stopped. CM designate Vishnu Deo Sai though has assured us to restore the scheme," said Upasne. They will also ask the new government to reinstate the status and health-related benefits to be extended to the MISA beneficiaries.

The top court last year stayed the order of the Chhattisgarh High Court that had quashed the Congress-ruled government's decision to abolish the pension scheme for MISA detainees. The then Raman Singh government launched a monthly pension programme in 2008 for such detainees.

After the formation of the Congress government, CM Bhupesh Baghel instructed all commissioners and the district collectors to stop the pensions from February 1, 2019, till the physical verification of all beneficiaries was carried out. The then CM had said that pensioners could not be called freedom fighters. Around 70 MISA pensioners had later filed a petition in the High Court challenging the government's decision to scrap the pension rules.

The state, challenging the high court order, during the hearing stated that its decision

- Govt says during BJP's earlier survey: party had data of 7L families who didn't have pucca house was dismissed without appreciating the authority of the state to withdraw any plan it had executed earlier.

Justifying the government decision, the Congress CM Bhupesh Baghel had asserted that such people (pensioners) could not be called freedom fighters after the disbursement of the pension was put on hold. In January 2022, a division bench of the Chhattisgarh High Court declared the state's decision on scrapping the pension scheme as against the rules and nullified it. The court ordered the continuation of the pension for the MISA pensioners.

The state government then filed an SLP in the apex court that stayed the high court order.

Kamal Nath skips meet in MP, Delhi to decide on LoP

ANURAG SINGH @Bhopal

ELEVEN days after suffering a resounding defeat of 66-163 seats against the ruling BJP in the Madhya Pradesh assembly polls, the opposition Congress finds itself in a quandary.

The newly elected MLAs convened at the state party headquarters in Bhopal on Thursday, under the watchful eyes of the party's national general secretary in charge for the state, Randeep Surjewala. Mostly everyone showed up except former Chief Minister Kamal Nath.

Those present included Bhanwar Jitendra Singh, head of the assembly polls scrutiny committee and former union minister, and Digvijaya Singh, the former CM and current MP.

The day-long meeting, which saw the two senior national party leaders engaging with the legislators individually, carried an unexpected void. State party chief Kamal Nath, along with the other six MLAs from Nath's stronghold Chhindwara and the recently formed Pandhurna district, where Congress replicated its 2018 polls success with a triumphant 7-0, were conspicuously absent. Despite Nath's absence, the newly elected MLAs unanimously decided to relinquish the responsibility of selecting the legislature party leader/Leader of Opposition to Congress national president Mallikarjun Kharge, as confirmed by Randeep Surjewala.

Notably, Kamal Nath's non-attendance was attributed to his engagement, along with the six Chhindwara and Pandhurna MLAs, in a public rally expressing gratitude to the electorate in the Sausar area of Pandhurna district.

When questioned about Nath's conspicuous absence, the former Leader of Opposition and seven-time sitting MLA Ajay Singh 'Rahul' responded with a cryptic, "You should better ask him (Nath)." While the Congress leaves the decision on the next Leader of Opposition to the party high command, the BJP has already installed OBC politician Dr. Mohan Yadav as the state's new CM, with Brahmin leader Rajendra Shukla and scheduled caste politician Jagdish Dewda as the two deputy CMs.

Sukhbir Badal says sorry for '15 sacrilege cases

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh

EIGHT years after the incidents took place, Shiromani Akali Dal president Sukhbir Singh Badal on Thursday apologized to the Sikh community for the 2015 sacrilege cases which happened during his party's government formed in alliance with the BJP, and appealed to dissident Akali leaders to come under one umbrella.

SAD has lost two consecutive assembly polls, with the Congress and AAP forming the government in Punjab. While addressing a gathering on the 103rd foundation day of SAD commemorated at Shaheed Baba Gurbax Singh Jee gurdwara near Akal Takht in Amritsar, Badal, while seeking an apology from the Sikh community, said that it was a lapse on the part of the then SAD-BJP government that they could not arrest the culprits behind the sacrilege incidents.

He added that due to political pressure, the government was compelled to refer the matter to the CBI. "We apologise for our failure that we could not arrest the perpetrators and we will ensure that the real culprits are punished," Badal said.

Poll time: Shinde says old pension scheme may be implemented

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @Mumbai

SENSING the significance of the old pension scheme among government employees who comprise a good chunk of voters, Maharashtra CM Eknath Shinde on Thursday told the protesting government staff that the government would decide on the scheme in the Budget session of the state assembly likely in February-March.

"Two senior secretaries of the state government will study the recommendations of the Subodh Kumar committee and give recommendations on the OPS," said Shinde hours after government and semi-government employees and officials struck work to press for their demand for restoring the OPS.

Speaking to reporters in the Vidhan Bhavan premises in Nagpur, where the winter session of the state legislature is underway, Deputy Chief Minister Ajit Pawar informed the media about discussions held with the representatives of government employees.

He said the government has received the report of the committee on OPS. Several government and semi-government employees in Maharashtra have been demanding restoration of the OPS, which was discontinued in the state in 2005.

Under the OPS, a government employee gets a monthly pension equivalent to 50% of one's last drawn salary.

Under the New Pension Scheme, a state government employee contributes 10% of one's salary plus Dearness Allowance with the state making a matching contribution. The money is then invested in one of the several pension funds approved by the Pension Fund Regulatory and Development Authority (PFRDA) and the returns are market-linked.

"We told them (representatives of those demanding OPS) the Mahayuti government will take a positive decision before the Assembly polls. But, they wanted it to be done as soon as possible," he said.

Lost & found: Thief takes note of social media post, returns bike to its owner

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA

@Ahmedabad

IN a rare twist of fate, the heart of a thief in Surat City, Gujarat, was touched by an unexpected act of kindness. Paresh Patel, a diamond worker from Surat, found himself in despair when his cherished motorcycle was snatched away from Mota Varachha. However, instead of resorting to the conventional route of filing a police report, Patel chose to express his feelings on social media, addressing the one who had taken his beloved two-wheeler.

In a heartwarming post that echoed the sentiments of fiction manifesting in real life, Patel conveyed, "I think you need a motorcycle more than I do; I have a bicycle and can get around on it. I'm leaving the motorcycle papers and RC book beside the power meter in the basement parking lot of the place where you stole my motorcycle."

This altruistic message resonated widely across Surat, spreading like wildfire on social media. Little did Patel know that his plea would reach the ears of the very person who had taken his motorcycle. Miraculously, the thief had a change of heart.

CCTV footage of the thief with the bike

Rather than seizing the opportunity to escape with the bike and its documents, the repentant thief returned the motorcycle to the exact spot where it had been stolen just a few days prior. Astonishingly, four days later, Patel was reunited with his once-lost treasure.

Elated by the unexpected turn of events, Patel shared with reporters, "Five days ago, I placed my bike in the usual spot, only to find it missing later that evening. Upon reviewing the CCTV footage, I witnessed the theft in plain view." Undeterred by the unfortunate incident, Patel decided to take a different approach.

Assuming the thief might be active on social media, he crafted a message addressing the culprit directly. "Mr. Thief, you took my bike, then took away the RC book and the key that I also left in the parking lot. You drive comfortably, and I have a bicycle on which I shall do my tasks," Patel revealed.

In an unexpected twist of fate, the thief, touched by Patel's compassionate words, not only returned the bike in front of the CCTV but also took the initiative to repair the damages incurred during the heist. This heartwarming story serves as a testament to the transformative power of empathy and forgiveness, turning an act of wrongdoing into a tale of redemption and unexpected camaraderie.

After SC order, 64 bodies airlifted from Imphal morgues for last rites

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Guwahati

THE bodies of 64 persons who lost their lives during the ethnic violence in Manipur more than seven months ago were airlifted to Churachandpur, Kangpokpi and Imphal on Thursday for the last rites.

Sixty of the victims belonged to Kuki-Zo community and their bodies were lying in the morgues of two hospitals in Imphal. The bodies were airlifted to Kangpokpi and Churachandpur, both Kuki-majority districts.

The bodies of four Meiteis, lying at the morgue of a hospital in Churachandpur, were taken to Meitei-majority Imphal and handed over to their families. The bodies were taken out under tight security cover at both places. According to the Indigenous Tribal Leaders' Forum, 41 bodies were flown to Churachandpur and 19 to Kangpokpi. Two helicopters made several sorties to transport the bodies.

The funeral services for the 19 victims in Kangpokpi will be held on Friday. No date has been finalised yet for the last rites of the 41 others in Churachandpur.

Kuki-Zo Organisation Com-

The funeral services for the 19 victims in Kangpokpi will be held on Friday | EXPRESS

mittee on Tribal Unity announced a total shutdown with in Sadar Hills-Kangpokpi from 5 am to 5 pm on Friday in view of the funeral services. It sought people's cooperation toward this end. The shifting of the bodies followed a direction from the Supreme Court. On November 29, it had issued directions to the Manipur government for "decent and dignified burial" of the victims.

According to a committee constituted to review the humanitarian aspect including compensation and rehabilitation, there were 88 unclaimed and six unidentified bodies lying in different parts of the state. The bodies were not claimed earlier due to security reasons after the violence tore the state apart.

Meanwhile, ITLF advised Kuki-Zo tribals to keep Christmas and New Year celebrations low-key. It asked them not to indulge in overtly conspicuous celebrations and other forms of enjoyment "during these hard times". "All communities are to observe muted Christmas and New Year celebrations by observing just the normal church service and not organize feasts and fellowship events," it said.

The ethnic violence, which broke out on May 3, has killed nearly 200 people and displaced over 60,000 others so far.

Section of Pandits says nomination means 'freebies'; Ladakh parties up ante on statehood

'Don't nominate, reserve 3 seats for Pandits in Assembly'

FAYAZ WANI @Srinagar

WITH Parliament passing the bill authorising the Lt Governor to nominate two Kashmiri Pandit members to the J&K Legislative Assembly, a Pandit group has demanded reservation of three Assembly seats for the community instead of nominating the members to the House.

Kashmiri Pandit Sangarsh Samiti (KPSS) president Sanjay Tickoo said that nominating two members of the community to J&K Assembly by Lt Governor won't serve any purpose. "This is not in the betterment of the community. Nominating Pandits to the Assembly is a token of freebie to keep the community silent with another bag of alms," he said.

Tickoo said that members of the Assembly, who are similarly nominated, will not have the same respect and dignity as those who are elected to the seat and represent the people.

"The nomination to Assembly is more like a toothless tiger

Empowering community

KPSS president Sanjay Tickoo said that three Assembly seats in J&K should be reserved for the Pandits in order to empower the community. Nominating Pandits to the Assembly is a token of freebie to keep the community silent with another bag of alms," he said.

or more specifically, a zoo tiger that has been tamed and intimidated by its master," he said. The KPSS president advocated that three Assembly seats in J&K should be reserved for the Pandits in order to empower the community.

According to Tickoo, three seats in Valley -- one seat in North Kashmir, Bijbehara seat in South Kashmir and Habbra Kadal seat in Central Kashmir's Srinagar should be reserved for Pandits. "It will make binding on the political parties to field Pandit candidates in three seats and some can also contest independently for these seats," he said.

MHA asks Ladakh parties to give documents on demands

FAYAZ WANI @Srinagar

AFTER the meeting with leaders of Ladakh in national capital on December 4, the Ministry of Home Affairs has asked the Leh Apex Body (LAB) and Kargil Democratic Alliance (KDA), the amalgam of various political, social, trade and religious groups of Leh and Kargil districts of Ladakh UT, to submit a comprehensive document of their demands.

LAB executive member Chering Dorje said that the MHA has sought a comprehensive document on demands from the LAB and KDA. "We had already apprised the Centre about our 4-point demands during our meeting with Union MoS Home Nityanand Rai and Home Ministry officials in New Delhi," he said.

Dorje said that the demands include granting of statehood with legislature, 6th Schedule status, two Lok Sabha seats and one Rajya Sabha seat and jobs to locals in Ladakh UT.

He said that they would again be submitting their charter of demands to the MHA. The drafting of the document will be finalised in the joint meeting of LAB and KDA leaders.

Sources said that in the December 4 meeting, the Home Ministry delegation had shown cold shoulder to two of the demands -- granting of 6th schedule and statehood to Ladakh. However, Dorje ruled out any compromise on any of their 4 demands.

"There is no question of compromise on our demands. We will continue to struggle for it," he said. Dorje said that after the Article 370 verdict of the Supreme Court, they have consulted the lawyers and there is thinking that "if statehood can be restored to J&K, why it cannot be restored to Ladakh as both were made Union Territories under the same law". The LAB leader said there is possibility of another meeting between LAB and KDA leaders with the Union MoS Home and MHA officials in New Delhi after the conclusion of winter session of Parliament.

Controversy over Nitish cancelling Varanasi visit

The cancellation of the proposed visit of Bihar CM Nitish Kumar to Varanasi on December 24 to kick-start his 2024 Lok Sabha election campaign triggered speculations. JD(U) spokesperson Neeraj Kumar blamed the BJP government in UP for the cancellation as it allegedly denied the permission to hold the proposed public meeting in Varanasi—the Lok Sabha constituency of PM Narendra Modi. It was actor-turned-politician Ravi Kishan who had challenged Kumar to contest from the holy city. According to the plan, the Bihar CM was to take his campaign to Maharashtra, Haryana, Rajasthan, Jharkhand and Gujarat from UP.

Good news for Mithilanchal residents

The stalemate over setting up AIIMS-Darbhanga seems to be over. The Centre is learnt to have agreed to build the premier institute at Shobhnagar village—the site which was earlier rejected for being a low lying land. However, Bihar water resources minister Sanjay Kumar Jha has said the state would have to spend more than the Centre on the project. According to sources, the project file was moved only after additional chief secretary of health Pratayaya Amrit met union health secretary Sudhanshu Pant in New Delhi. It will be the second such health facility after AIIMS, Patna.

RJD jittery over ED raid connected to merit scam

Opposition party Rashtriya Janata Dal led by Lalu Prasad received flak over recent raids conducted by the Enforcement Directorate on the residential premises of RJD leader Amit Kumar alias Bachcha Rai in connection with the Bihar 2016 merit scam and is currently on bail. Reports said that cash amounting to Rs 3 crore was seized during the raid. ED also registered a case against the RJD leader for carrying out illegal construction on the land confiscated by the central agency in 2018. Ralis considered to be close to Lalu Prasad and his family.

REPUBLICANS LAUNCH IMPEACHMENT INQUIRY AGAINST BIDEN
Conservatives point to son's controversial dealings, but yet to prove Biden's involvement in them
WASHINGTON

THE US House of Representatives voted Wednesday to formalise an impeachment inquiry into President Joe Biden, escalating Republicans' battle with Democrats ahead of the 2024 election in a move Biden himself slammed as a "baseless" political stunt.
Republicans, seizing on Biden's son Hunter's controversial international dealings, have yet to provide evidence of corruption by the president, and the Democratic-led Senate would be unlikely to convict him even if the inquiry did lead to an actual impeachment trial. Regardless, the procedure guarantees Republicans a new, high-profile platform to attack Biden as he campaigns for reelection — and to distract from the federal criminal trials facing his almost certain challenger Donald Trump.
The vote of 221 to 212 was along strict party lines, with every Republican voting for it and every Democrat against. Conservatives accuse Biden's troubled son Hunter of influence-peddling — effectively trading on the family name in pay-to-play schemes during his business dealings in Ukraine and China. The allegations against Hunter Biden refer to incidents that took place before his father became president, and the White House has stressed there has been no wrongdoing. Biden himself responded immediately after the vote, accusing Republicans of stalling on key fronts — such as funding government — while obsessing over scoring political points ahead of the election.

"Instead of doing anything to help make Americans' lives better, they are focused on attacking me with lies," Biden said in a statement. "Instead of doing their job on the urgent work that needs to be done, they are choosing to waste time on this baseless political stunt that even Republicans in Congress admit is not supported by facts." Republicans insist the work has merit. "As President Biden continues to stonewall lawful Congressional subpoenas, today's vote of the full House of Representatives authorising the inquiry puts us in the strongest position to enforce these subpoenas in court," said House Speaker Mike Johnson. War will last many months, Israel tells visiting US official

A man rushes an injured child to a hospital after Israeli bombardment in southern Gaza's Rafah on Thursday | PTI

JERUSALEM

ISRAEL'S defence minister warned on Thursday the war with Hamas would last "more than several months" as he met a top US official amid a rift between the allies over mounting civilian casualties. The war, now in its third month, began after the Palestinian group's unprecedented October 7 attacks on Israel that Israeli officials say killed about 1,200 people, mostly civilians.
In response, Israel vowed to destroy Hamas and launched an unrelenting military offensive that has left swathes of Gaza in ruins. The health ministry in the Hamas-run territory said 18,787 people have been killed, mostly women and children.
In Gaza's southern city of Khan Yunis, smoke rose from a grey landscape of rubble which people combed with shovels and their bare hands after a strike. One man sat on the broken concrete, wiping his eyes.
"Around four people are still stuck under the rubble" after an airplane hit the building "without a warning", said Hassan Bayyout, 70, US National Security Advisor Jake Sullivan arrived in Tel Aviv on Thursday and met with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and Defence Minister Yoav Gallant. In their meeting, Gallant warned that Israel's fight with Hamas "will require a period of time -- it will last more than several months, but we will win and we will destroy them".
Ahead of his trip, Sullivan had told a Wall Street Journal event he would discuss a timetable to end the war and urge Israeli leaders "to move to a different phase from the kind of high-intensity operations that we see today". US President Joe Biden, whose government has provided Israel with billions of dollars in military aid, delivered his sharpest rebuke of the war this week. He said Israel's "indiscriminate bombing" of Gaza was eroding international support. But Netanyahu vowed to carry on "until victory" and Foreign Minister Eli Cohen said the war would continue "with or without international support". AFP

Fed stance, lower oil prices propel market to new high

Fed keeps rates within 5.25%-5.5% range, signals 3 rate cuts in 2024

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

DOMESTIC equity market scaled to fresh highs on Thursday, with the benchmark indices -- BSE Sensex and NSE Nifty50 -- gaining nearly 1.3% each after the US Federal Reserve signalled the end of its hawkish stance and at least three rate cuts next year.

Sensex ended 929.60 points or 1.34% higher at 70,514.20 while the Nifty 50 closed at 21,182.70, up 256.35 points or 1.23%. Investors' wealth surged by ₹4 lakh crore as the market capitalisation of the BSE-listed companies rose to ₹355.10 lakh crore.

Parth Nyati, founder of Tradingo, said a confluence of domestic and global factors is driving a Goldilocks scenario in the Indian equity market. "Unwavering political stability, a robust macroeconomic backdrop with healthy GDP growth and subdued inflation, and weakening dollar and US bond yields amid expectations of a 2024 rate cut have fueled bullish momentum."

Parth Nyati, founder, Tradingo

Additionally, a slump in crude oil prices, which had eased inflation pressure and foreign institutional investors (FIIs), also supported the market rally. FIIs net bought ₹3,570 crore worth of equities on Thursday, according to NSE data. As per NSDL data, FIIs have invested a net of ₹39,260 crore so far in December.

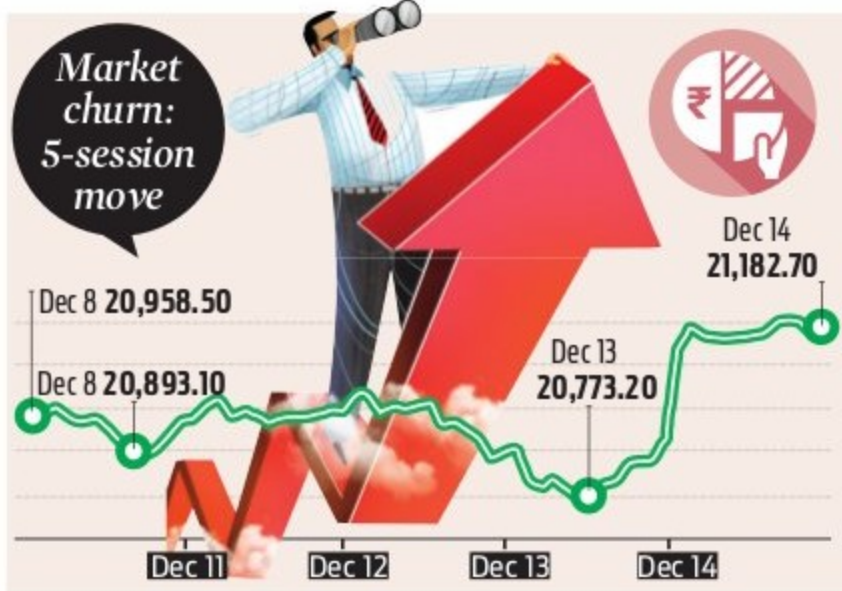

The US Federal Reserve in its latest policy meeting maintained interest rates within the range of 5.25%-5.50% and signalled a plan to implement three rate cuts in 2024. This led to a sharp rally in equity markets worldwide.

When the Federal Reserve announces rate cuts, FIIs increase their exposure in emerging markets such as India as it offers them a better risk-reward scenario. The hike lowers the strength of the US dollar and makes the safer US bond yields less attractive.

Additionally, other central banks around the world follow the Fed lead when it comes to increasing/decreasing future interest rates. This means that the RBI may also go for multiple rate cuts next year which will make borrowings easier for corporates and improve their earning margins-- a big positive for the equity market.

IRDAI proposes higher surrender value

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

IN a positive development for policyholders, the insurance regulator has proposed to amend rule to increase the surrender value of traditional life insurance policies.

Surrender value is the amount that an investor receives if she surrenders the policy without completing the full tenure of the policy.

The Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (IRDAI) in a draft product regulation issued recently has proposed that there will be a premium threshold defined for each product, and no surrender charges imposed on the balance of the premiums beyond such threshold limits, irrespective of the timing of the surrender. Currently, the surrender val-

If implemented will benefit policyholders

The proposal if implemented may benefit those policyholders who could not continue their policies beyond a few years. However, insurers could get hit as their margins would come down. An insurance executive said higher surrender value will adversely affect persistency ratio of life insurance policies.

ue is calculated as a percentage (or surrender value factor) of the total premium paid. The Surrender value factor increases with time. A traditional insurance policy or non-participating policy acquires a surrender value in the third year (after completing two years). The surrender value factor in the third year is 30%, 4-7th year is 50% and last two years of the policy term is 90%. So, if a policyholder surrenders his policy after paying ₹1 lakh premium annually for three years, she would get only ₹90,000 (30% of ₹1,00,000) as surrender value against her total investment of ₹3 lakh.

But as per the new proposal, if threshold limit is ₹25,000 for a non-linked savings insurance policy with annualised premium of ₹100,000 and policy term of 20 years, then the surrendered value for threshold premium is ₹22,500 (25,000*3*30%). The premium refund beyond threshold premium is 2,25,000 (₹(1,00,000 - 25,000) x 3).

So the adjusted guaranteed surrender value the policyholder receives after three years is 2,47,500 (₹2,25,000 + ₹22,500). The proposal if implemented may benefit those policyholders who could not continue their policies beyond a few years. However, insurance companies could get hit as their margins would come down. An insurance executive told this newspaper, on condition of anonymity, higher surrender value will adversely affect persistency ratio of life insurance policies.

CBIC asks officers to exercise restraint in issuing GST notices on expat salary

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

IN a recent development, the Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) has issued a circular offering respite to multinational corporations (MNCs) with Indian subsidiaries that employ expatriates.

In a major relief, the circular, issued by CBIC acknowledged that the non-payment of goods and services tax (GST) on expat salaries is a matter of interpretation. It said the tax authorities should exercise caution before issuing tax evasion notices to Indian subsidiaries of MNCs regarding expatriate manpower deputed from abroad.

CBIC recognises that different companies have various salary arrangements for expats, necessitating a case-by-case consideration of the associated tax implications. The circular references the Supreme Court ruling in Northern Operating System (NOS) case, advising officers to examine factual aspects before applying the judgment universally. It emphasises that the decision in the NOS case should not be mechanically applied to all instances.

In 2022, the court had determined that the secondment of employees from foreign principal companies to Indian subsidiaries falls under the category of "manpower supply" in the erstwhile service tax provisions. The court noted that, in the NOS case, Indian subsidiary reimbursed the foreign principal for expatriate employees' salary expenses. This ruling is deemed applicable to GST as well. Based on this judgment, the Directorate General of GST Intelligence (DGGI) had initiated investigations in multiple cases, involving GST amounts exceeding ₹3,000 crore across India. Notices were sent to companies such as BMW India, Mitsubishi Electric India, Metal One Corporation, Alstom Transport India and United Breweries, seeking 18% GST on expat salaries, among others. Asper Abhishek Jain, Partner and National Head, Indirect Tax, KPMG in India, such proactive, timely and much needed directions have played a significant role in successful implementation of GST. Where the said instructions are followed at ground level, these could help closure of various show-cause notices issued on the matter.

Kia to raise production capacity by 1 lakh units, to add 100 sales outlets

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

KOREAN carmaker Kia will enhance its production, sales network and its product range in the country next year as part of an aggressive business plan to counter growing competition in the market.

The automaker also has plans to curtail exports from the country in order to effectively cater to the demand in the domestic market.

"We have an aggressive business plan for next year. We are looking to add 100 more sales outlets and enhance installed production capacity by 1 lakh units," Kia India Managing Director and chief executive officer Tae-Jin Park said on the sidelines of global premier of the latest version of its compact SUV Sonet.

Kia currently has a production capacity of 3.4 lakh units per annum at its Andhra Pradesh-based manufacturing plant. It also has 429 sales outlets in the country. Park said the company's sales were impacted last year due to a variety of reasons including component shortage and the issues stand resolved

now. Park also informed that Kia would curtail exports from the country in 2024.

The overseas shipments next year would be up to 10% of the overall production, he added. Kia currently exports around 20% of its production to global markets. On enhancing the sales network, Park said the company is looking to target tier III and tier IV towns next year while also enhancing presence in some of the bigger cities.

"We expect domestic market to get more competitive and crowded next year, so we are looking at all these measures," Park said. On new product introductions, he stated the company will introduce the new version of Carnival MPV in the country next year. When asked about the company's electric vehicle plans for the country, Park noted that the company would launch EV 9 next year.

Diesel trims continue to account for 40-45 per cent of total sales in Seltos and Sonet, Park said. The new Sonet comes with petrol and diesel powertrains and more than 25 safety features, including ADAS.

We have an aggressive business plan for next year. We are looking to add 100 more sales outlets and enhance installed production capacity by 1 lakh units

'India can take over businesses vacated by the West in Russia'

BALA CHAUHAN @ bengaluru

INDIA and Russia have historically been close friends and allies. "There is, however, a scope for deeper business ties. India has a great business opportunity to fill in the sectors, which have been vacated by some western markets because of the sanctions against Russia. We are historical allies and both of us can mutually gain from each other. Our economies are strong," said Deputy Director of the Roscongress Foundation & Director, St Petersburg International Economic Forum (SPIEF) Alexey Valkov, in an informal chat with TNIE.

SPIEF is Russia's major economic and policy forum which is organised annually in June.

Speaking on the sidelines of a trade show organised ahead of SPIEF 2024, Valkov said trade between India and Russia has grown from the traditional sectors to some "new areas of co-operation (software, aerospace and creative and digital economies). There are new opportunities that can be explored. The business delegation to SPIEF in 2022 from India was ranked among the third biggest after China and the United Arab Emirates (UAE). We had a separate business forum for India. In next year's edition, which is scheduled on June 5, we are planning to keep the first day for engagement with the Indian delegation", he added.

The volume of trade between India and Russia this year is close to $50 billion and is likely to grow. India has emerged as the top importer of Russian seaborne crude this year, after some western countries shunned Moscow on its Ukraine invasion in February last year. India and Russia are pursuing joint projects in various traditional sectors like defence, technology, railways, fertilisers, agricultural machinery, petrochemicals and shipbuilding among others, and the new sectors. "Russia is big in technology. There are apps which allow you to do multiple chores without getting out of the house; from paying bills and taxes to multiple other services. I see a similar level of digital literacy in India. Prime Minister Narendra Modi's 'Make in India' concept is very strong. In the 2017 SPIEF edition, he was the main guest and we had a separate stand for 'Make in India,'" said Valkov.

On the impact of the sanctions and Russia-Ukraine war on the former's economy, Valkov said last year, the Russian economy was ahead of many European economies. "Following the sanctions, many western countries have left Russia but we had participation of some BRICS countries and some others in this year's SPIEF edition. There were 17,000 participants -- CEOs of global companies -- who had attended. The numbers are on par with pre-pandemic events and are growing," he added. Asked about the controversy over the demand for payment in Yuan by Russian oil companies and India's objection to it, Valkov said he was "not an expert to comment on the issue", while adding that SPIEF was an "economic forum where such issues can be brought up to be discussed".

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

FOR the eighth straight year, Biryani has topped the charts as the most-ordered dish on Swiggy, as Indians ordered 2.5 biryanis every second in 2023.

For every 5.5 chicken biryanis, there was one veg biryani ordered and 2.49 million users made their debut on Swiggy with a biryani order.

Every sixth biryani was ordered from Hyderabad and a Swiggy user from the city ordered 1,633 biryanis this year. Swiggy on Thursday released How India Swiggy'd 2023, and said a Biryani-loving family in Chandigarh ordered 70 plates in a single go during the India Vs. Pakistan World Cup match in October. Swiggy was clocking over 250 Biryani orders per minute during this match.

It found that a user from Mumbai placed food orders worth Rs 42.3 lakh, and maxi-

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN

@ Chennai

A STONE'S throw away from the Leela Palace, the sound of a relatively calm Bay of Bengal was unmistakable. The genteel waves grabbed the attention of a few of the guests who were milling about in the lobby. Then, it was no wonder that they missed the arrival of D Gukesh, one of the country's myriad chess prodigies. He may only be 17 but he already has enough achievements in a very short career. Becoming a Grandmaster as a child, an Olympiad gold, overtaking Viswanathan Anand's ELO mark... you get the drift.

Over the last few months, Gukesh has crisscrossed the world in the hope of qualifying for the Candidates. He may have booked his spot had he beaten Magnus Carlsen in the quarterfinals of the World Cup in August but the Norwegian halted his progress. It was during that tournament when the 17-year-old became the top-ranked Indian in the Classical format, a mark that had previously belonged to Viswanathan Anand for 36 years.

Since then, though, Gukesh has been on a slightly downward trajectory. If the ascent till August had been on an escalator, he has had to walk on beach sand since then. Unsure footing here, a slip there. From a high of 2758, his rating is now 2715.5. It's why Gukesh calls the last few months 'very tough'. But there's no time to rest. No time even for a power nap. It's why hours after landing from London (he was taking part in the London Classic), the 17-year-old, whose eyes very clearly needed some sleep, was checking into the hotel. From Friday, he will be featuring at the Chennai Masters 2023, the country's strongest Classical meet of all time (average ELO of 2711). On the couch waiting to be checked in, it seemed like somebody had forcibly woken him up and splashed some water on his face.

At the Opening Ceremony a few hours later, the twinkle in his eyes was back. It was also not hard to miss the punishing schedule the teen has willingly endured to try and qualify for the Candidates (at some level, this tournament itself has been willed into existence over the last few weeks to help Gukesh and Arjun Erigaisi, the other Indian with a chance of advancing to the Candidates this late in the season, garner crucial points in the FIDE circuit leaderboard).

Since Baku, Gukesh has played events in Dusseldorf, Kolkata, Berlin, Hangzhou, Doha, Douglas and London. In December alone, Gukesh is in line to play at least one competitive Classical match in 16 of the first 21 days. Then, he is likely to feature at the World Rapid and Blitz in Uzbekistan.

His mind, though, is only thinking about the next seven days. If he can win this tournament, he will be in first place in the leaderboard. "There are a lot of thoughts going on in my mind (what did you tell yourself when you saw other Indian players qualify for the Candidates?)," he said after the Opening Ceremony. "You learn to handle it (pressure) and put yourself on the board and give your best. The last few months has obviously been tough but it was a great learning experience. To play now in Chennai is going to be something special."

You normally don't associate pressure with a 17-year-old but it's fair to say Gukesh has felt it within handshaking distance this year. "It's surely a new challenge to me, trying my best. Hopefully this time I will be able to bring my best. Different people have different ways in handling pressure. I have a very supporting family and friends. They are with me no matter what. Their company is something I look forward to... I also like watching some tennis."

Debutants deliver for India

Jemimah and Shubha set the tone before middle-order helps hosts get to 401/7 on Day One

KALYANI MANGALE @ Navi Mumbai

THE time India women played a home Test, Shubha Satheesh, daughter of a BEML (Bharat Earth Movers Limited) employee, was playing every sport she could in Mysuru, but with a little more love for cricket. Little did she then 15-year-old know that she would get the debut cap on a bright December morning almost nine years later when India played their next home Test.

"I didn't have a plan to become a cricketer or anything at that time, but I just wanted to play the game. That's it," the 24-year-old said after Day One of the play against England at the DY Patil Stadium in Navi Mumbai. Once the openers got out early, it was Shubha (69), and fellow debutant Jemimah Rodrigues (68), who scored fifties to help the team recover. Even as they got out, Harmanpreet Kaur (49), Yastika Bhatia (66) and Deepti Sharma (60 batting) kept the innings going as India finished day one with a mammoth 401/7 in 94 overs.

"It's a really special moment for us," Rajath, her coach from the Bowlout Cricket Academy in Mysuru told this daily. "She is a very dedicated player, who has struggled a lot to get there. She's been waiting for this moment for the last two years. Two years back, she got the most runs for Karnataka and was selected for the one-day challengers. In the domestic league stage before the Challengers, she fractured her finger and came back without playing."

However, none of those hardships mattered for Shubha as she invested almost seven years in the domestic circuit without giving up. And when it was her time to take the bull by the horns, she did not shy away from smashing the English bowlers, whom she had never faced. Shubha hit the very second all of her Test career to four off Lauren Bell. A glorious drive back past Kate Cross and a punch through cover against Sophie Ecclestone followed. No bowler bothered Shubha, and she showed them all of her shots. One by one disarming the opponent's threats.

"She could manage because of that solid technique she has. Like any bright batter, once your technique is sorted, it does not matter who comes in, whether it is the pacers or spinners. Because if you notice it's a technical one, she was playing all of them in front of her right side. Which means whether it was spin or no spin, she was able to negate it. So the minute the player can do that, you take the turn on the ball or the amount of swing out of the equation. It means you're picking the ball up early and she's also very strong off the back foot," Aarti Sankaran, former cricketer and coach who saw Shubha in the Zonal Cricket Camps in Guntur, says.

SCOREBOARD

India (1st innings): Mandhana b Bell 17, Shafali b Cross 19, Shubha c Sciver-Brunt b Ecclestone 69, Jemimah b Bell 68, Harmanpreet (c) run out 49, Yastika c Bell b Dean 66, Deepti (batting) 60, Sneha c Sciver-Brunt 30, Pooja (batting) 4; Extras: (B19, LB 7, NB 2) 28; Total: (For 7 wickets in 94 ovs) 410; FoW: 1-25, 2-47, 3-162, 4-190, 5-306, 6-313, 7-405; Bowling: Cross 14-0-64-1, Bell 15-1-64-2, Sciver-Brunt 11-4-25-1, Filer 15-1-84-0, Dean 17-1-62-1, Ecclestone 22-4-85-1.

For Aarti, it was all about the player who wanted to go that extra mile and do something more to improve themselves. "The first time I got to know was, if I'm not mistaken, 2016-17. And what I found coming about that kid for her propensity to have a lot of energy and her constant need to keep on doing something whether that is bowling or fielding. She's a brilliant fielder. She hates it when the ball crosses her. Like every time we used to have fielding drills at the ZCA camp, the first person to be there is Shubha and the last person to leave with you," she explains.

Such was her dominance with the bat in the domestic seasons that she even made opposition players and coaches take notice. Aarti recalls when the Karnataka opener's carefree attitude didn't change against a bowler who had helped India win Test matches.

"In 2020-21, the COVID season that we played in Chennai, the first ball she played against Tamil Nadu, she hit for a boundary. It was a powerfully hit cover drive, Niranjana Nagarajan bowled it. I said 'Freak, what a shot'. That talks about her mindset. I use the word preparation a lot. Preparation starts in the head and she's somebody very sorted in the head. She has not let any of her success get to her. She will go back the next day to work pretty much the same."

Rajath echoes these sentiments. "She is a rough cricketer. We call her Dada, after the Kannada movie star Vishnuvardhan, who went by the same nickname. She is that aggressive cricketer who never shies away. In general, she never bothered about bowlers. Just look at the ball and play it on merit. That's all," he says. That is exactly what she did against England on day one.

Mysuru and the Indian women's cricket team have a special relationship. After all, that place witnessed India's second-ever win in the longest format on the home soil. Will Mysore-born and raised Shubha help India rewrite the history books in the coming days? Only time will tell.

VRINDA, SHUBHA & THE PROMISE THEY HOLD

KALYANI MANGALE @ Navi Mumbai

RIGHT at the time of the first Women's Premier League auction in February this year, Vrinda Dinesh was playing one-dayers for the South Zone. Shubha Satheesh, on the other hand, was back home, nursing an injury.

Nine months on, Vrinda has become one of the highest-paid uncapped players in the history of the league, while Satheesh made her Test debut against England at the DY Patil Stadium in Navi Mumbai — the exact place where the first-ever match of the WPL played amongst heaps of fanfare. "The first time I met her was in 2014, she was already a part of the U19 state side for Karnataka," Vrinda, who is currently leading Karnataka U23 side in Raipur recalls. "She was the batter we all used to look up to because she had always been getting runs. We became close friends over the last 3-4 years. When I started playing for the senior side, she was someone who guided me. In January, while playing the senior one-dayers against Baroda, Shubha and I had a partnership of 150 runs. She scored 76 and I went on to score 91. I think it was one of the highest partnerships both of them have been part of and it was in Mumbai as well."

This on-field partnership has not stopped just at cricket. "We love hanging out with each other. She is more like an introvert who doesn't talk a lot. But when she gets comfortable with you, she really gets going and doesn't stop cracking jokes. She is lively and bubbly once someone gets to know her. When we chill out it's about long walks and Churmuri (laughs). She loves eating Churmuri," Vrinda spilled the beans.

For those who have not seen a lot of Shubha in the domestic circuit, it was a pleasant surprise when she kicked off with an on-the-knee cover drive off Lauren Bell to the ropes. What makes that boundary even more special was that it was just the second ball of her international career. However, Vrinda has seen it over the years and she was not surprised by that boundary or the one the left-hander smashed against Sophie Ecclestone while facing her for the first time. "This aggressive approach, I have always seen in Shubha. She has always been confident. I have seen her hit first-ball fours so many times. I used to ask her all the time, 'how are you doing this?'. That confidence has always been there with her. We knew this day was coming but knowing what she has been through, I think she is going to enjoy this a little bit more. She is not the one for milestones (Shubha got out to Ecclestone after a well-made 69). I think she must have enjoyed just being there and playing for India because it has been a big dream of hers. We have always shared that dream. I am just happy that it has come true for her today," she said. One could hear that proud feeling about her friend in Vrinda's voice.

It's not just Vrinda. Earlier, on day one of the Test, the entire Karnataka U23 team was thrilled when they found out their friend had made a Test debut. "The Karnataka U-23 team, we were having breakfast together half an hour before the toss. We all started searching on Instagram and everywhere to find videos if she got the debut cap. All of us were checking if anyone had put any details about the debutants. As soon as we realised she was making a debut, we were all sitting in front of the TV and waiting for her to come on the screen. Everyone is just so delighted for her," Vrinda added. Even after one of the best days on the cricket field for her, Shubha didn't forget to give her best wishes to the state team. "Karnataka is doing really well and Vrinda is leading the team in the right direction. I would like to wish them all the best," Shubha told the media after the day's play.

These two players, who have toiled hard in the domestic circuit without any fanfare, have taken the women's cricket world by storm in the last few days. "There is no dearth of talent in the Indian domestic women's circuit," tweeted India all-rounder Shikha Pandey while Shubha was batting. Vrinda and Shubha are proof of it. And if this was any indication of what is to come, India are just about to unearth a goldmine of talent. The future does look bright on the horizon.

ODISHA MASTERS

Chirag stuns third seed to enter quarters

AGENCIES @ Cuttack

INDIA'S Chirag Sen, ranked 106th in the world, came up with a stunning performance to knock out third seed Mads Christophersen of Denmark in the men's singles pre-quarterfinal of the Odisha Masters badminton tournament here on Thursday. Top seed Wen Chi Hsu of Chinese Taipei faced a tough opponent in Lo Sin Yau of Hong Kong, going down 15-21, 16-21 in the women's singles pre-quarterfinal.

Unseeded Chirag, 25, after enjoying success against Saneeth Dayanand Shimoga (R64) and Varun Kapur (R32), put up a commendable performance against Christophersen defeating the 52nd-ranked Dane 21-10, 15-21, 21-17. In other matches, the doubles pairs of Ashwini Ponnappa-Tanisha Crasto and Rutuparna Panda-Swetaparna Panda progressed to the quarterfinals, while Unnati Hooda and Kiran George advanced to last-eight in singles. Former world No. 1 and fourth seed Nozomi Okuhara of Japan came out 21-11, 21-16 winner against Stephanie Widjaja of Indonesia in women's singles.

England flop, Spain surge

The final Champions League group stage in its current format ended with representation from the supposedly all-powerful Premier League cut in half as Manchester United and Newcastle United failed to advance to the knockout stage and were even knocked out of European competition altogether. What have we learned ahead of the round of 16 draw...

ENGLAND'S STRUGGLES

There will be wry smiles around Europe as English teams received a bloody nose. Only defending champion Manchester City and Arsenal got through, marking England's weakest round-of-16 challenge in 11 years. It's quite the slump for a country that has provided six of the last 10 finalists and three of the last five winners.

Jayasuriya is SLC's Cricket Consultant

COLOMBO: Sri Lanka Cricket on Thursday appointed former opener Sanath Jayasuriya as the full-time Cricket Consultant for one year. The appointment of Jayasuriya follows the reconstitution of the national selection panel on Wednesday under new lead selector and former opener Upul Tharanga.

SPAIN'S RISE

Of the eight group winners, Bayern Munich, Arsenal, Real Madrid, Real Sociedad, Atletico Madrid, Dortmund, Man City and Barcelona, four are from Spain. While it was expected from Madrid, and potentially Barca and Atletico, too, given they were placed in weak groups, Sociedad's rise with a mostly hometown team and coach is a welcome sight for romantics keen to see new names thrive.

Atletico Madrid	bt	Lazio	2-0

SUPER LEAGUE

After big-ticket games on the field, the lawyers take over. A final ruling in the Super League case is scheduled next Wednesday from judges at the Court of Justice of the European Union in Luxembourg. It is two years, and eight months since 12 storied clubs from Spain, Italy and England tried to launch a breakaway league they would run outside of UEFA's authority and that would effectively kill the Champions League.

SURPRISE PACKAGES

PSV, the European champion in 1988 and runaway leader in the Eredivisie is in the knockout stage for the first time since 2016. Their only loss in 26 games this season was a 4-0 beating by Arsenal in their Champions League opener. Copenhagen's only previous appearance in the round of 16 was in 2011. The other runners-up were Napoli, Inter Milan, Lazio, PSG, Leipzig and Porto.

MIND THE GAP

Adapting to the demands of the CL is difficult even for teams from well-financed top leagues. Newcastle and Lens returned after decades away and Union Berlin made its tournament debut. They combined to win three of 18 games and only Lens will still play European games in February, in the second-tier Europa League. The extra intensity of a two-games-per-week schedule and domestic games also makes it tough to sustain last season's results.

Among the talking points where the future of the T20I set up and whether India needs Rohit Sharma the captain back, especially with Hardik Pandya's injury, despite Suryakumar Yadav leading the team to a home series win against Australia. Whether he will continue as captain or not is still a long way off, but SKY has shown that he can step up and lead from the front. Thursday was yet another example of it as the Mumbai-ikar smashed a century of 56 balls to help India post 201/7 against South Africa in the final T20I in Johannesburg. In reply, SA were all out for 95 runs with Kuldeep Yadav taking a fiver.

Put into bat first, India lost Shubman Gill and Tilak Varma early but SKY, with support of Yashasvi Jaiswal, turned the tide in no time.

Brief scores:
India 201/7 in 20 ovs (Yadav 100, Jaiswal 60) bt SA 95 in 13.5 ovs (Kuldeep 5/77).

Cyber attacks to become more sophisticated in 2024

ENS @ Bengaluru

BOTH hackers and cyber security professionals continue to improve on the use of artificial intelligence (AI) and machine learning (ML). In a blog post on predictions and trends in the cybersecurity industry for 2024, security intelligence solutions provider Securonix says 2023 was the year that AI exploded on the public stage with the growth of large language models (LLMs) such as ChatGPT. This trend will extend into 2024, as attacks will become more sophisticated as threat actors continue to use AI tools. Year 2024 will likely witness an increase in AI-assisted and AI-driven attacks successfully bypassing security controls such as multi-factor authentication (MFA), zero trust, and other fundamental security technologies and defences. Security professionals will have to adapt to these attacks through the development of their own AI-based tools to create effective defences. Stressing on generative AI and deep fakes, Securonix says they have been proven to be effective in improving phishing and other social engineering attacks that bypass security protocols to access sensitive information – 47% of Indians have been, or know people who are, victims of AI voice cloning attacks.

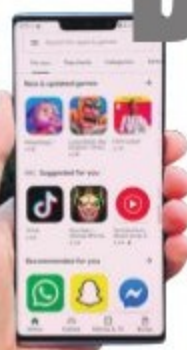

Game maker Epic recently won a major anti-monopoly lawsuit against Google over its abuse of dominance in its Play Store market. This could have a wide impact on the revenue model of Google and probably Apple's App Store

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

AMERICAN video game and software developer Epic Games, maker of the hit game Fortnite, has won big in its battle against Google in a major antitrust trial, which challenged the tech giant's 'illegal monopoly' in Play Store, alleging that Google is quashing competitors and charging exorbitant fees for app developers. The nine-member jury ruled in favour of Epic on all counts.

In its lawsuit, Epic alleged that in 2021 Google made an operating profit of $12 billion on its Play Store by abusing its dominance in the app store market.

Epic also alleged that Google used to bundle its Play Store and billing service, forcing developers to use both.

Google charges a commission fee of up to 30% on in-app purchases on platform and also charges service fee for digital goods sale.

The jury also noted that Google "willfully acquired or maintained monopoly power by engaging in anticompetitive conduct". The court will begin work in January on what remedies to implement. This could determine how Google needs to make changes in its operations addressing anti-competitive behaviour. Epic did not ask for monetary damages.

Commenting on the development, Epic CEO Tim Sweeney in a post on X claimed victory over Google. "After 4 weeks of detailed court testimony, the California jury found against the Google Play monopoly on

Tesla recalls two million vehicles in US to fix autopilot 'defect'

Tesla is recalling two million vehicles sold in the US to fix a partial defect in its autopilot system. The company will make an update to fix the software and make sure drivers pay attention when using autopilot—partially automated driving system. It was intended to be used in highways and not for city traffic. Tesla's autopilot feature reportedly caused numerous crashes including fatal accidents when it was used in unintended places. News reports and safety experts say there were no guardrail mechanisms to prevent misuse of autopilot. If the driver attempts to engage Autosteer when conditions are not met for engagement, the feature will alert the driver it is unavailable through visual and audible alerts, and Autosteer will not engage, the recall report stated. The move follows a two-year investigation into it. All Tesla cars after 2015 came with an auto pilot feature and this means the company is recalling almost all vehicles sold

Range Rover teases its first EV, opened a waitlist for pre-orders

Tata-owned Range Rover has teased its much anticipated first all-electric vehicle. It has opened a waiting list for pre-orders as physical prototype testing is under way. The company has released a video glimpse in which an electric vehicle is seen wading through waters, responding to concerns of luxury, comfort and all-terrain off-road performance. Range Rover said its EV will deliver performance similar to its flagship Range Rover V8 and has all-terrain capability. The car is built on Modular Longitudinal Architecture in Solihull, United Kingdom. Its 800V architecture will help faster charging on public networks, software-over-the-air updates and intelligent technology to maximise range. "We are on target to create the quietest and most refined Range Rover ever created," the company said in a release. It will have a unique active road noise cancellation configuration, sound design and level of cabin comfort, it said
